GALICIAN FORTRESS SURRENDERS TO CZAR

Russians Capture Stronghold After Many Months of Siege, but Are Routed from Memel by Germans

Today's War News Given in Summary.

The siege of Przemyśl came to an end today and the Austrian defenders of the Galician fortress surrendered to the Russian forces, which have been investing it for months. The fall of Przemyśl deprives Austria of her last important fortress in Galicia, with the exception of Cracow, near the German border, which the Russians have made several unsuccessful attempts to capture.

The German war office announced that the city of Memel, on the Baltic sea, in the northern tip of East Prussia, had been retaken from the Russian forces, which captured it last week, following a battle near the city. The German announcement contains the assertion that Russians looted the city while they were in possession.

Operations in France and Belgium were of much the same character as recently. Fighting continues in northern France, near Arras; in Champagne and in the Argonne. Two spirited battles occurred yesterday in the Argonne, the French authorities claim success in each case, but here, as elsewhere along the western front, the results attained there were small.

London, March 22.—The great Galician fortress of Przemyśl, which the Austrians had so staunchly defended since the early days of the war, fell into the Russian besiegers' hands this morning.

With the strong Russian line tightly drawn around the fortress the efforts to break through were apparently hopeless and 6,000 Austrian prisoners fell into the hands of the Russians, while as many more fell dead or wounded. The shattered remnants of the force fled back to the fortress and they now have fallen into the hands of the Russians.

The garrison of Przemyśl originally numbered 60,000 or 80,000 men, but sorties and shells must have cut a considerable number of thousands from that total. The besieging army is understood to number about 120,000.

Attack Cracow Next.

This force will now march on the strong Austrian fortress of Cracow, 125 miles to the east of Przemyśl, it being the announced intention of the Russian commander to reduce the ancient Polish capital as speedily as possible. As soon as the news of the fall of Przemyśl reached the headquarters of the Russian commander-in-chief, a Te Deum of thanksgiving was celebrated in the presence of Emperor Nicholas and Grand Duke Nicholas and all their staffs.

GERMANS RECAPTURE MEMEL.

Drive Russian Invaders From Prussian City After Sharp Fight.

Berlin, March 22.—An official statement given out today by the German war headquarters says:

"A fresh attempt to take the German position on the south slope of the Lorette heights was made last night, but resulted in failure. Another French night attack north of Lomen in the Champagne district also was without success. Furthermore all the French efforts to win back the position at Reich Arkopf resulted in failure.

"The Russians yesterday were driven from Memel, on the Baltic sea in East Prussia, after a short engagement to the south of the town followed by tenacious fighting in the streets. Under the protection of Russian troops, a Russian mob looted the private property of German citizens in Memel. Carloads of goods were conveyed across the frontier. A special report on this looting will be published.

"North of Marianopol Russian attacks have been repulsed with heavy Russian losses. West of the Orze river, near Jadnorosak, to the northwest of Przemyśl, and to the northwest of Gachnow, Russian attacks by night and by day have broken down under the German fire. Russian prisoners to the number of 420 were captured.

SIEGE LONG AND VIOLENT.

Austrian Defense of Przemyśl a Striking Feature of War.

Petrograd, March 22.—It was announced officially this morning that the Galician fortress of Przemyśl surrendered to the Russians today.

The siege of Przemyśl, an Austrian stronghold in the province of Galicia, has been under way since the early days of the war. It has been a bitter and relentless siege which has never been relaxed for a moment since the Russians invested the city. Several attempts of the Austrians to raise the siege, the last of which was made only a short time ago have failed.

With the fall of Przemyśl the only important fortified town in Galicia which is still in the hands of the Austrians is Cracow in northwest Galicia close to the German border.

In the early days of the war the Russian offensive campaign as outlined, contemplated the invasion of Germany

SENTENCED TO DIE IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

Indianapolis, March 22.—Tom Dorak, a Hungarian, found guilty of the murder of George Wise, another foreigner, in the criminal court here last week, was sentenced to pay the death penalty in the electric chair at the Michigan City prison before sunrise July 9.

Before sentence was pronounced Dorak said that he had nothing to say other than that the witness had not told the truth. Dorak's attorneys filed a motion for a new trial.

SPRING IS GIVEN A COLD RECEPTION

According to those who know spring made her debut in 1915 society at precisely 10:51 a. m. Sunday morning. At that hour, it is claimed, the sun passed the equator. Experts declare that the arrival of spring can be figured down to the fractional part of a second. The fair dandelion was given a most cool reception in Fort Wayne. Throughout the entire day considerable snow has fallen and, according to Forecaster W. S. Palmer, light snows may be expected Tuesday with not very much change in the temperature.

Gray Would Shoulder All Blame on Germany

London, March 22.—"War might have been avoided by a European conference when and where Germany desired," Foreign Secretary Sir Edward Gray told an audience in London this afternoon. At the time he was acting as chairman of a gathering which was listening to a lecture on the strategy of the war. Continuing along this line the foreign secretary said:

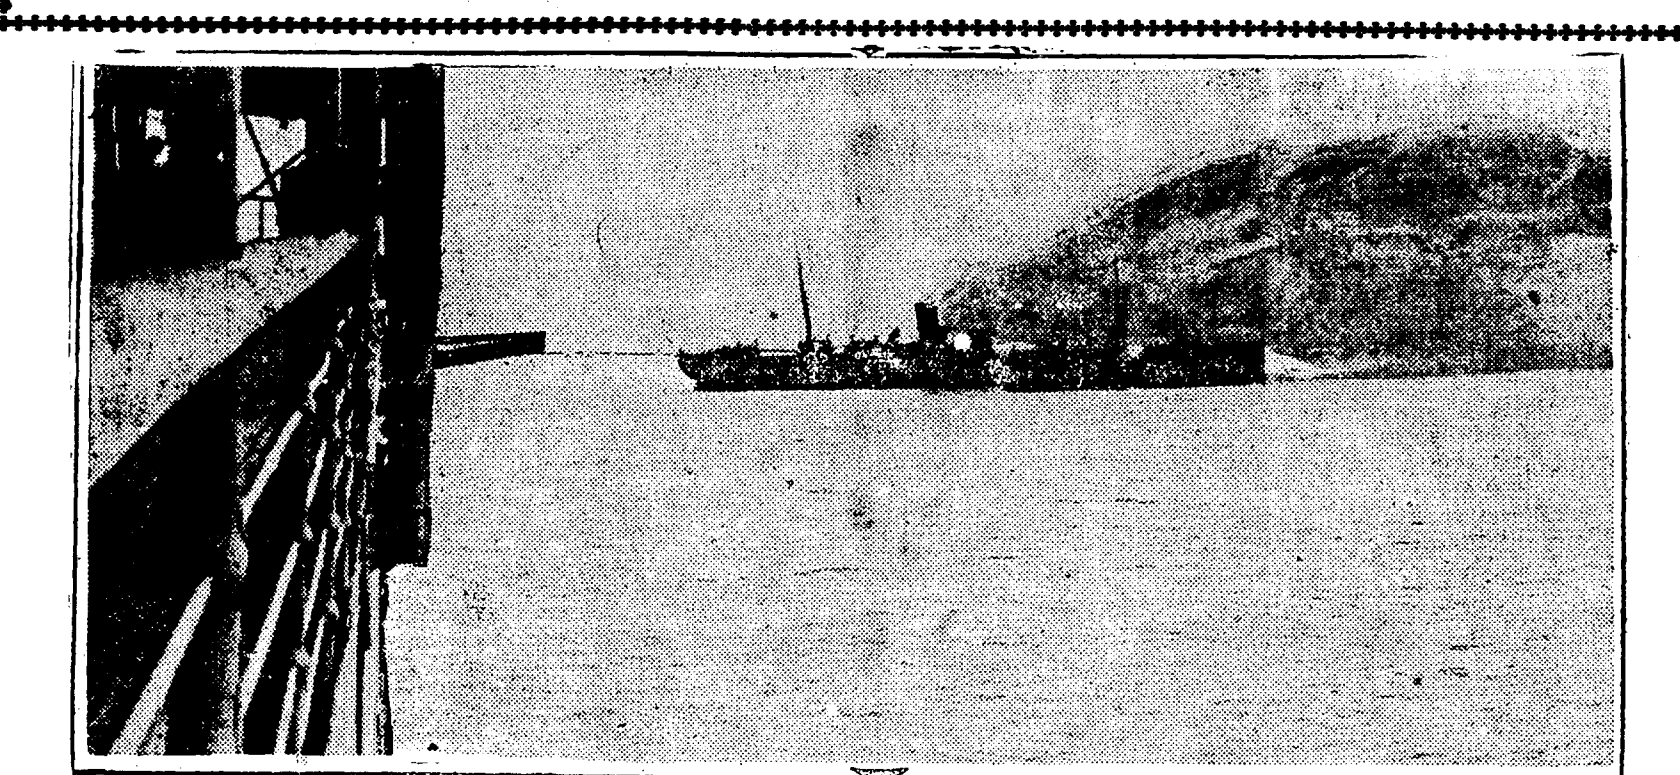

"Germany, from her experience in the Balkan conference, knew she could count on our good will and that we were ready to do last July what we did before. But Germany refused every suggestion and on her rests for all time the appalling responsibility for the war. We now know that Germany had prepared for war, and those who have caused the war only can prepare for it."

on Europe and we are determined it shall be the last."

"The expenditure of hundreds of millions of money and the loss of millions of lives might have been avoided by a conference of the European powers held in London or at The Hague or wherever and in whatever form Germany would have consented to hold it. It would have been far easier to have settled the dispute between Austria-Hungary and Serbia, which Germany made the occasion for the war, than it was to get successfully through the Balkan crisis of two years ago."

"In recent years," the foreign secretary went on to say, "we have given Germany every assurance that any aggressive movement upon her would receive no support from us. We withheld from her only one thing: the second international conference of European states."

ARMED LINERS MEET IN CANNON DUEL—AUXILIARY CRUISERS, BOTH GERMAN AND BRITISH, PLAYING BIG PART IN WAR

The British auxiliary cruiser Orama, which has arrived at Valparaiso with wounded from the German cruiser Dresden, sunk at Juan Fernandez, told of meeting and giving battle to the German armed merchantman Navarra off the River Plate. In the sea duel that followed the German ship was finally sent to the bottom. In the picture shown above the Navarra is seen in flames, just before she sank. Afire inside her steel decks were almost red hot. In the foreground is the Orama, on board which this photograph was taken.

WILL USE VIEWS OF WORK IN FORT WAYNE

Anti-Tuberculosis Campaigners in Indiana Resume Crusade.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22.—While all the world is praying for peace, men and women interested in the crusade against the "white plague" in Indiana are preparing for a still more vigorous war against that deadly disease, according to an announcement made today from State Anti-Tuberculosis headquarters, 203 Public Savings Insurance building, Indianapolis. One of the most potent weapons to be used in this war will be an illustrated Indiana lecture on tuberculosis, which has been blocked out by the state society. This lecture will be sent to all parts of the state to be used in public meetings and in many instances a lecturer from the office of the society will be supplied. This lecture will include slides showing the way tuberculosis is being combatted in all parts of Indiana. Views of Healthways hospital, at South Bend, the first county tuberculosis hospital in the state, the work done at Boehne farm, near Evansville, of the visiting nurse work in Fort Wayne, Logansport, South Bend, Evansville, Jeffersonville, Marion, New Albany, Terre Haute and Elkhart, of the educational work being carried on in numerous Indiana cities of free tuberculosis clinics which have recently been established in Fort Wayne, New Albany and Terre Haute; and of many other phases of the anti-tuberculosis crusade in Indiana will appear as a part of the lecture.

A number of purely educational slides, showing the value of fresh air, good food and rest, of the evils of fake consumption "cures," and a "tuberculosis primer," a series of slides specially adapted for use in schools, but, because of their direct and simple teaching, of great value to adults as well, will also be included.

Already a number of cities have made application for this lecture, which will be ready for use about the first of April. The slides will probably be used first in Elwood illustrating a talk to be delivered by Mrs. Ella B. Kehr, of Anderson.

In preparing these slides the officers of the state society have endeavored to select views and material best suited to the general and wide use to which the lecture will be put.

DOESN'T INTEND TO CALL EXTRA SESSION

Washington, March 22.—Formal announcement was made at the white house today that at present President Wilson has no intention of calling an extra session of the senate or of congress before the beginning of the regular session next December. It was said the president sees no prospect of any contingency arising which would cause him to alter his present intention.

Several senators had suggested that the president call a special session of the senate in October to consider ratification of the Colombian and Nicaraguan treaties. Other suggestions were that an extra session of congress be called during the summer to take up the question of giving the president authority to declare an embargo on the exportation of munitions of war and food stuffs to the belligerent powers of Europe. It was said that the president had no intention of calling such a session.

EXPORTS MAY CAUSE SHORTAGE IN WHEAT

Likely to Hamper Seeding and Food Requirements in America.

Washington, March 22.—Warning that the present heavy exports to European nations of American wheat and flour cannot be continued without endangering the wheat supplies for food and seeding requirements at home was contained today in the department of agriculture's Agricultural Outlook. In the opinion of the department's experts, exportations at the same rates as during December, January and February until the coming of the new wheat crop would encroach upon normal domestic needs.

Investigation has disclosed that there was on March 1 an apparent surplus of about 91,000,000 bushels of wheat over the domestic requirements for food and seed that was available for export in the four months from March 1 to July 1.

While the exports of wheat, including flour, during those four months last year were 36,000,000 bushels it is pointed out that those exports during December, January and February last averaged almost 35,000,000 per month and if that rate of export continued until the new crop is available it would amount to 140,000,000 bushels.

The program also called for an official visit by the vice president and Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, to Admiral Howard, aboard the cruiser Colorado, flag ship of the Pacific fleet, and a review of the warships assembled in San Francisco.

The taxicab was crushed and the firemen were injured.

WOMEN CURB FRAUD VOTE

It Would Have Been Much Larger But for Them, Say Witnesses.

ONE NEGRO VOTED "ABOUT 19 TIMES"

More Highly Sensational Testimony in Terre Haute Cases.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22.—Sheriff Dennis Shea instructed Walter Barrett "to start an argument or anything else to get William Horsley away from the polls" last election day, according to Barrett, who testified in the Terre Haute election case in federal court here today. Shea is a defendant and Horsley was the republican candidate for prosecutor.

Barrett, although he testified he voted a number of times and received money from Shea and Mayor Donn M. Roberts, another defendant, was not among the 126 indicted.

Barrett testified that he had been helping Shea in precinct C, of the Sixth ward, and Shea told him to go to precinct B, of the same ward, "and to do anything to get rid of Horsley." The witness said he went to precinct B and voted, but had no trouble with Horsley.

On cross examination he said he was released from jail in Terre Haute Jan. 27, 1915, but denied he threatened Shea that he would "sneak at Indianapolis," if Shea didn't give him money to get to Chicago.

Voted "About Nineteen Times."

Lee Watkins, negro, testified he earned $45 by voting and "shooting craps with other repeaters" on election day. He voted nineteen times, he said.

"There are only a few colored men in this precinct and I'm afraid I've gone the limit," Watkins testified Shea told him when he went to precinct C, of the Sixth ward to vote.

A. O. Stanley, on cross examination, asked if Watkins had pleaded guilty. United States District Attorney Dailey stated that the man had not been indicted and Judge Anderson said: "He is one of the others to the grand jury unknown."

VACANT LOTS ARE TO BE BEAUTIFIED

Vigorous Campaign is to be Waged by Miss Rhoda Braddock.

Through the efforts of Miss Rhoda Braddock, in charge of the garden work in the schools of the city, a vigorous campaign is to be waged in Fort Wayne this spring for the beautification of back yards and vacant lots.

Miss Braddock has called a meeting of the committee to be held at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the city hall at which time arrangements will be made to outline the plan of procedure. It is the intention of Miss Braddock to organize a number of garden clubs for boys and girls, get permission from the owners of vacant lots in the city, many of which are now unsightly, and then offer prizes to the clubs doing the best work. Pictures are to be taken of the lots before and after. Gardens are to be put out and flowers are to be planted.

The campaign is not to stop with vacant lots. An effort will be made to interest property owners in cleaning up their back yards and in a general cleaning of the city. In this work Miss Braddock has enlisted the co-operation of C. Henry, agricultural agent of Allen county, who will assist the boys and girls in planting their garden truck and in the caring for the same.

LORIMER ENTERS NOT GUILTY PLEA

Chicago, March 22.—Plea of not guilty were entered today in the federal district court by William Lorimer and three other officials of the former La Salle Street National bank to indictments charging irregularities in the management of the bank. Mr. Lorimer was indicted on a charge of having misapplied the funds of the bank.

Of the other three, Charles G. Fox and Thomas McDonald were charged with having made false entries in the books and Joseph P. Gallagher was charged with having misappropriated the funds of the bank. Charles B. Munday and H. W. Huttig, defendants in the same action, had not been served with notice and did not plead. The La Salle Street National bank, Mr. Lorimer's first venture in banking, failed last year.

FRAMING THE NOTE TO GREAT BRITAIN

Washington, March 22.—It was stated definitely at the white house today that a note to Great Britain making representations on some features of the Order in Council is being framed and will be dispatched to London in a few days. The basis of the representations was not disclosed.

Representations to Germany of reparation for the loss of the American sailing ship William F. Frye and her cargo, sunk in the South Atlantic by the German auxiliary cruiser Erika, Mr. Friedrich, also are being prepared and will be dispatched to Berlin in two or three days.

The representations to Great Britain are expected to dwell chiefly on Great Britain's action that she reserve the right to seize German ships and cargoes.

HELD UNDER NEW POWER

Recent Congressional Resolution Applied to Case of Odenwald.

SHOT HALTED HER DASH FROM HARBOR

Hamburg-American Liner is Detained by Uncle Sam at San Juan.

Washington, March 22.—The Hamburg-American liner Odenwald, stopped from leaving San Juan, Porto Rico, yesterday by shells fired across her bow, is being held under the recent congressional resolution empowering the president to prevent supplies going from American ports to ships of the European belligerents at sea.

Secretary Garrison is making a thorough investigation of the Odenwald's case in connection with treasury department officials and the white house, under the Resolution.

Under the resolution the president was authorized "to direct collectors of customs under the jurisdiction of the United States to withhold clearance from any vessel American or foreign which he has reasonable cause to believe to be about to carry fuel, arms, ammunition, men or supplies to any warship or tender, or supply ship of a belligerent nation, in violation of the obligations of the United States as a neutral nation."

It further provides that "in case any such vessel shall depart or attempt to depart from the jurisdiction of the United States without clearance for any of the purposes set forth, the owner or master or person or persons having charge or command of such vessel, shall sever all and be liable to a fine of not less than $2,000 or more than $10,000, or to imprisonment not to exceed two years or both, and in addition such vessel shall be forfeited to the United States."

Officials would not disclose what grounds they had for believing that the Odenwald came under the terms of the resolution.

This report was received today from Lieut. Col. Burham, commanding the Porto Rican garrison:

"Hamburg-American commercial steamer Odenwald attempted to leave port without clearance papers. At request of collector of customs to prevent

PLAYMATE IS HELD AFTER LAD'S DEATH

Clinton, Ind., March 22.—Pending a further investigation of the death of Felix Novenski, 10 years old, in Jacksonville, near here, the authorities today are holding Samuel Muscovich, a playmate.

The boy had been playing in the Novenski home Sunday when W. F. Adams, a merchant, heard a shot. He ran to the house to find the floor covered with blood.

He followed a trail of blood to some nearby brush where the boy's body was hidden. The Muscovich boy was found hiding in a shed. He denied firing the shot, saying his playmate had killed himself accidentally.

Among the applications that are to be disposed of is that of Henry McDonald, who was sent to Michigan City for two to twenty-five years in 1908, after he had shot up the court room at Terre Haute, following his conviction by a jury for having unlawfully carried dynamite. AIRMEN HIT BOTH CALAIS AND PARIS

Calais, March 22.—The third Zeppelin attack upon this city, timed at almost the precise hour that the aerial raid was made upon Paris early Sunday morning, was made ineffective because the whirling of the airships' motors gave warning of their approach. The Zeppelins came from the direction of the sea, but bombardment from French artillery caused them to retreat before they reached the city. It is supposed here that they intended making another attempt of dropping bombs in the harbor and railroad junction.

ONE DEATH IS RESULT.

Zeppelin Bombs Dropped on Paris Early Sunday Morning.

Paris, March 22.—(5:05 a. m.)—While no one was killed directly by the Zeppelin bombs, which were dropped in Paris and its environs early yesterday, they resulted in one death that of Mme. Charles Person, who lived in the Rue des Dames. The aged woman was so frightened by the explosion of a bomb in that street that she died soon afterward.

After Public Prosecutor Lescouvé and his staff had visited all the places where bombs exploded and examined several witnesses he drew up a report to which will be annexed reports made of previous airship raids upon the city. A city analyst, who spent the day collecting bombs which did not explode and fragments of those which did, took them to his laboratory for a chemical analysis. From a cursory examination he found that most of the missiles dropped were incendiary, containing a mixture of phosphorus, tar and benzene, provided with a light contrivance consisting of a wick soaked in petroleum.

The Zeppelins yesterday dropped a dozen bombs, but the damage done was unimportant. Seven or eight persons were injured, but only one seriously. Four of the air crafts started for the capital, following the valley of the Oise, but only two reached their goal. Missiles also were dropped at Compiègne, Ribecourt and Dreux, but without serious result.

Paris remained calm while the aerial invasion was in progress and residents of the city exhibited more curiosity than fear as to the result. Trumpets gave the signal that all lights must be extinguished as soon as warning was received of the Zeppelins' approach. Searchlights were turned upon the clouds, anti-aircraft guns opened fire and aeroplanes rose to attack the Germans, but their operations were hampered by a heavy mist.

ATTACK MOST FURIOUS ONE

Fighting in Dardanelles is Described by Eye-Witness.

WHEN THE FRENCH BATTLESHIP SANK

Forts and Fleet Exchange
Terrific Fire Lasting
Several Hours.

Berlin, March 22.—The correspondent at Constantinople of the Wolff bureau telegraphed today a description of the fighting at the Dardanelles on Thursday, March 18, in which the French battleship Bouvet and two British battleships were sent to the bottom. Here follows an abridgment of the correspondent's story of this engagement:

The efforts of the allies to force the straits of the Dardanelles reached their climax in an artillery duel on Thursday, March 18, which lasted seven hours. The entire atmosphere around the Turkish forts was darkened by clouds of smoke from exploding shells and quantities of earth thrown into the air by the projectiles of the French and British warships. The earth trembled for miles around.

The allies entered the straits at half-past 11 in the morning and shelled the town of Chank Kkale. Four French and five British warships took part in the beginning. This engagement reached its climax at half-past 1, when the fire of the allies was concentrated upon Fort Mamidieh and the adjacent fortified positions.

Spectacle Is Terrifying.
The attack of modern marine artillery upon strong land forts presented an interesting as well as terrifying spectacle. At times the forts were completely enveloped in smoke. At 2 o'clock the allies changed their tactics and concentrated their fire upon individual batteries, but it was evident that they found difficulty in getting the range. Many of their shells fell short, casting up pillars of water, or went over the forts to explode in the town. At a quarter past 3, when the bombardment was at its hottest, the French battleship Bouvet was seen to be sinking at the stern. A moment later her bows swung clear of the water and she was going down.

Roaring cheers from the Turkish garrisons and forts greeted this sight. Torpedo boats and other craft of the allies hurried to the rescue but they were successful in saving only a few men.

Besides having been struck by a mine the Bouvet was severely damaged above the water line by shell fire. One projectile struck her forward deck. A must also was shot away and her overboard. It could be seen that the Bouvet when she sank was endeavoring to gain the mouth of the straits.

This, however, was difficult, owing apparently to the fact that her machinery had been damaged.

British Ship Damaged.
Shortly after the sinking of the Bouvet a British ship was struck on the deck squarely amidships and compelled to withdraw from the fight. Another British vessel was badly damaged, and at a quarter before four was seen to retire under a terrific fire from the Turkish battery. This vessel ran in toward the shore. For a full hour the allies tried to protect her with their guns, but it was apparent that she was destined for destruction. Eight effective hits showed the hopelessness of the situation for this vessel. She then withdrew toward the mouth of the Dardanelles, which she reached in a few minutes under a hail of shells. The forts continued firing until the allies were out of range.

This was the first day when the warships attacking the Dardanelles kept within range of the Turkish guns for any considerable length of time. The result for them was terrible, owing to the excellent marksmanship from the Turkish batteries. The allies fired on this day 2,000 shells without silencing one shore battery. The result has inspired the Turks with confidence and they are looking forward to further engagements with calm assurance.

PEACE LECTURER IN THREE ADDRESSES

Dr. Hill and Dr. King Speak
in Fort Wayne Churches
Sunday.

Two speakers of national reputation spoke in the churches of Fort Wayne Sunday, Dr. John Wesley Hill, of New York, president of the Peace Forum, on the subject of "Peace," and Dr. Harry King, president of Moore's Hill college, on religious subjects.

Dr. Hill spoke in the morning at the First Methodist church, in the afternoon at the Wayne street M. E. church and in the evening at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. King spoke at the Simpson M. E. church in the morning and at the Wayne street M. E. church in the evening.

In his address on "Peace," Dr. Hill, among other things, said: "The daily cost of the war in Europe is fifty millions. If the war continues for a single year, this already enormous debt will be increased over eighteen billion, making their combined national debt forty-two billion. Now note this important fact: There are but eleven billions of gold and bullion in the whole world, of which four billion are held by all Europe. With this condition, when these nations come to settle their war accounts, they will find themselves shuddering on the verge of bankruptcy, and when, a little later, emperors and kings, military aristocracies of war begin to demand further loans for the enlistment and training of new larger armies and the restoration, enlargement and improvement of their shattered armaments, the finance keepers of the world will say, 'It is impossible.' We cannot supply you longer to starve legitimate industry, cripple commerce, arrest the progress of education and religion, to build deadly machines for human slaughter, to lay waste our lands, impoverish our people, de-civilize our civilization and turn the world backward toward barbarism. This folly must stop."

Dr. Hill declared it would be foolish and suicidal for this country to interfere in the present struggle.

"The duty devolving upon us is to lead the way in the creation, not only at home, but throughout the world, of a sentiment for the establishment among the nations of a supreme court of judicial settlement."

SHOT FROM DOLPHIN
HALTS SANTA CLARA

Mistake in Interpretation of
Signals Causes Dispatch
Boat to Fire.

New York, March 22.—The American steamer Santa Clara, outward bound, was stopped today by a shot fired across her bows in the lower harbor by the dispatch boat Dolphin, stationed there to watch outgoing steamers and preserve American neutrality at this port. A mistake in the interpretation of signals and the failure of the Santa Clara to stop brought the Dolphins guns to bear upon her. She was promptly released and proceeded.

The Santa Clara cleared Saturday for Havana. As she was passing quarantine today she displayed signal letters spelling out her name. The Dolphin's lookout apparently thought she had hoisted the wrong letters and a shot was fired to halt her.

As soon as the Santa Clara stopped, a navy tug ran alongside and after a few moments' conversation with the steamer's captain she was permitted to continue on her way.

BADLY TANGLED ON AMERICAN HOLIDAYS

Brussels Thought Feb. 14 U. S. Fete Day and Held Celebration.

Brussels, Feb. 28.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—No foreign holiday has ever been celebrated so fervently in Belgium as was Washington's birthday, but in the city of Brussels St. Valentine almost usurped the honor which the Belgians wished to pay to the memory of America's first president. Someone started the story that St. Valentine's day was the national fete day of the United States and consequently on the 14th thousands of citizens wore small American flags and letters of good wishes poured into the American legation.

The province of Liege made no mistake in the matter and the city council of Liege ordered that Washington's birthday should be celebrated with formal exercises in the schools which were also granted a vacation on the 23d. The following circular was therefore sent to the headmasters of the various schools:

"The United States of America have of late shown deep interest in the welfare of Belgium. By revivifying the population which has suffered so much from the war, America has rendered an immense service to our country. The 22d of February is a national holiday in the United States. I desire that on this day the pupils of all professional schools for girls and of all grammar schools partake in the celebration and that on this occasion the importance of the services rendered by the American republic to the Motherland and the noble example set by this act of international solidarity be clearly illumined. I leave it to your judgment to arrange the details of the manifestation."

TWO WILL SERVE GERMANY.

Newport News, Va., March 22.—Charles Frank and Roger Rogge, former members of the crew of the American sailing ship, William P. Frye, sunk in the South Atlantic by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, and who were said to be held on the cruiser against their will, for military service, made a deposition yesterday, denying that they were being held forcibly.

The men appeared at the customs house in the uniform of the German navy and said they regarded themselves as refugees from a sinking ship, subject to military service under the German flag, which they were willing to perform. Rogge holds a master's certificate in the German merchant marine. Frank is signed as an able seaman.

HIDES STOLEN GEMS IN EMPTY DWELLING

Robert Kelly Steals Three Diamond Rings and Confesses.

After stealing three diamond rings of a total value of about $250 from Mrs. William Clemens, 303 West Main street, and hiding them in the attic of an unoccupied dwelling on Barr street, Robert Kelly, aged 25, went through a hard process of sweating under Detective Sergeant William F. Pappert, Monday afternoon, before he finally confessed the robbery and took the officer to the place where he had secreted his loot.

Kelly is employed as a waiter in a downtown cafe and rooms in the house at 303 West Main street. Mr. and Mrs. William Clemens, of Dayton, Ohio, took rooms there Sunday. After completing her toilet in the lavatory of the house, Monday morning, Mrs. Clemens went to take her diamond rings which she had laid aside on the washbowl. Later she missed them and reported to the police.

Detective Pappert learned that Kelly roomed in the house and went after him. Kelly strenuously denied the theft for a long time, but finally came across and took Detective Pappert to the house at 907 Barr street and drew the rings from their hiding place. They were restored to Mrs. Clemens by Detective Pappert Monday afternoon.

Kelly came to Fort Wayne from Chicago about a week ago. He is held on a grand larceny charge.

Kelly said he had never seen the Barr street place until he went there to hide his plunder.

Society

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. C. Kinley, of Francis street, Saturday afternoon by a party of friends of the neighborhood and other parts of the city. They all arrived at once and rushed into the house apparently much excited and announced that they knew it was the hostess' birth anniversary. Mrs. Kinley acknowledged the fact and gave her friends a most cordial greeting. The guests were prepared with well filled baskets so later in the day an elegant luncheon was spread, with a large birthday cake with candles lighted on it as the wind-up to the repast. The ladies participating were Mesdames Hollenbacher, Hilger, Wehrenberg, Krudop, Galmeyer, Schulz and Lindemann.

C. W. Noll was the victim of a pleasant surprise party which Mrs. Noll arranged for yesterday afternoon and evening. At the right hour a merry company of friends called at 1612 High street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noll. The day was the natal anniversary of Mr. Noll and that was the occasion for the party. Music both vocal and instrumental was enjoyed as well as a supper that had been well prepared and was tempting to see. There were present Messrs. and Mesdames Mrs. Wolf and son Carl, Will Weaver, H. Loring, J. Steel and son Vincent, H. VanOsdeale and son Ralph, of St. Joe township; Mrs. I. N. Myers, of Maple, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper, of Eden, O.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

LUKE 20:1-14.
 1 And it came to pass, that on one of those days as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,
 2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?
 3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:
 4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?
 5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believeth ye him not?
 6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us; for they believe that John was a prophet.
 7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.
 8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.
 9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.
 10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard; but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.
 11 And again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
 12 And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also, and cast him out.
 13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.
 14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

Getting an Early Start.

The average Indiana citizen who revels in an occasional respite from politics and entertains the idea that he is entitled to a breathing spell between campaigns is plainly doomed to disappointment this year. There isn't going to be any rest. Both the republicans and the democrats—and particularly the former—have begun to get up party steam for 1916 in a fashion that indicates an inherent belief in the value of an early start. Nor is the activity confined to mere curb gossip. The organizations have begun to hold get-together meetings over the state, as witness this week's instance in Fort Wayne, to line up the forces for next year's clash.

There is no lack of prospective timber for the places from president down. Republicans are talking of C. W. Fairbanks and James E. Watson for the presidency; for Harry New and for Judge Walter Olds for senator; for James P. Goodrich, James E. Watson, Hugh Th. Miller, Quincy A. Myers, John McArdle, Charles A. Bookwalter, William L. Taylor, Senator W. M. White, of Crawfordsville, and a number of others for governor, not to mention the minor places on the ticket.

On the democratic side of the situation, there is little likelihood that serious opposition will develop to the renomination of Senator Kern, and he will undoubtedly be democracy's choice for return to the senate. For the gubernatorial nomination the two men at present most strongly in the limelight are Representative J. A. M. Adair and William H. O'Brien, but there are certain to be additional entries in the race.

Enough is doing at this early date to make it evident that the political pot in Indiana is due for a protracted siege of seething that will not abate until after the election a year from next November. We might as well accept the situation and look as pleasant as possible in the meantime.

Despite denials issued from Washington at the time he sailed for Europe, there is increasing evidence to indicate that Colonel E. M. House, of Texas and New York, close friend of President Wilson, is in Europe in an effort to bring about peace between the warring nations. It is declared that Colonel House has already reported to Wilson the demands of England and France, and that the purpose of his presence in Berlin is to seek a statement of the terms on which Germany would be willing to embark in peace negotiations. Very naturally it is necessary to surround negotiations of this character with all the secrecy possible, but that the president is diligently though quietly using his friendly offices in an effort to end the war on a basis satisfactory to all the belligerents, is scarcely to be doubted. It will be the profound hope of the rest of the world—and, possibly, of the belligerents themselves, that his success may not be long deferred.

Representative John R. Jones, of Plymouth, the man who led the successful fight for the state-wide primary law in Indiana, has now enlisted with the force of the Citizens' League of Indiana in the campaign for a new constitution. Nothing succeeds like success, and it is to be hoped that Mr. Jones will be as successful in convincing the people of the need for the new constitution as he was in forcing the state-wide primary law to enactment. It will be a service of much more general value to the state than even his primary law providing for popular nominations.

Friends of Major G. Will Wilson say he will be a candidate for delegate to the republican national convention next year with Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, as his first choice for the presidential nomination. Just to keep the record clear in the event Mr. Herrick comes through at the psychological moment, it might be observed that Major Wilson has securely nailed down and safely tucked away pretty early claims to priority as the "original Herrick man" in the Twelfth congressional district. Others would do well to take due notice.

At least you cannot longer blame it on the groundhog. His six weeks' rulership over the weather expired some time ago.

PARTY PLEDGES.

(Toledo Blade.)

The republicans of the Pennsylvania senate had been nominated before the adoption of their party platform. That they were bound by the platform was denied by one of the republicans when the woman suffrage amendment was before the senate last Monday. The platform, he argued, was a thing apart from the selection of candidates. It carried no command to them. If it was worth anything at all it was only as advice. The chairman of the republican state committee, himself a senator, recited that two years ago he had opposed this same amendment "with all the force that he could muster." Later, it became a plank in his party platform. His party was committed to submit the amendment to a vote of the people. "On that platform," he said, "the state candidates and many legislators were elected and they were obligated to carry out its mandates. It is a question to-day whether a party platform, deliberately made, shall be faithfully kept."

HELPING BUSINESS READJUST.

(Grand Rapids Press.)

The new trade commission does well to announce that its motto will be "constructive helpfulness." The members realize that business is a delicate matter dependent entirely upon credit and confidence and they do not propose to add to the general feeling of uncertainty which new legislation began and the war continued.

Instead of harassing business by using drastically their broad powers of supervision, the commission proposes to inject itself into the commercial structure of the country by short and conservative steps. It will take for granted the desire of 90 per cent. of business men to conduct their enterprises in accordance with the law of the land. Such infractions as appear will be considered due to ignorance of the law rather than deliberate evasions or deceptions. In this way the commission hopes to stabilize business by showing entrepreneurs how to conduct themselves without running afoul of the anti-trust laws and so reduce to a minimum legal actions which always tend to debilitate the nervous system of industry.

It is a wise decision and in accord with the spirit of the day. The conservative spirit is abroad in the land. The current disposition in legislative and government circles is to allow business to adjust itself to the new conditions written into law at public behest during the last ten years. If the trade commission succeeds in adjusting big business to the law it will do much to bridge one of the dangerous gulfs confronting the American people. The modern system of big business has recently been described by an acute observer as turning out the wrong kind of citizens, but the latter take their revenge in striving with thorns the highway of industry. Democracy faces a supreme task in harmonizing business and politics and it is encouraging to find the trade commission approaching the grave responsibility with caution and conservatism.

The decision is of interest not only in showing the increasing strength of the women suffrage movement, but also because it shows an increase in the power of party platforms to hold office-holders to their pledges.

Dr. George T. Brubach, who died yesterday, was one of the most prominent medical practitioners of Indiana. He was born in Germany in 1830, received his education in the universities of that country and in 1858 came to America, shortly afterward coming to Fort Wayne, where for more than thirty years he practiced medicine.

Theodore F. Thieme will retire from the drug firm of Thieme and Gross and will devote his attention to real estate interests at Clear Lake, Ind., and at Findlay, Ohio. G. B. Pollens, of Richmond, will probably associate himself with Mr. Gross in the drug business.

Miss Lillian Pierce has received the $25,000 prize offered by the Land Improvement company for a name for the new addition and park. She named it Lakeside. A. Z. Foster, of Terre Haute, who was the first to submit the name, was awarded the prize, but declined to accept it and it was then awarded to Miss Pierce, who was the second to submit the name adopted.

Members of the posts of the Grand Army of the Republic and allied organizations will on April 9 celebrate the anniversary of the surrender of General Lee at Appomattox.

Just take your shoes off and then put these weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunions-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." Its grand—its glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous excretions which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

RICE IS ENGAGED FOR EXPOSITION

Noted Tenor in Ft. Wayne
 Tonight to Sing at San Francisco.

Leon Rice, the tenor who gives his recital of "An Evening of Song" at Wayne Street M. E. church this evening, has received very remarkable contract from the directors of the big fair now in progress in California.

Singing with the Shriners' band of 120 pieces on a tour of California last season the Sacramento Star says: "An audience of about 4,000 people applauded this noted tenor to the echo in the agricultural pavilion; forcing him to respond to double and triple encores after each number."

So great was Mr. Rice's success in the far west last year that the directors of the Panama-California exposition have engaged him for several appearances on important state days, and he is now on his way towards there.

Mr. Rice's appearance here is one which should be fully appreciated by the people of Fort Wayne, especially as it will be possible for everyone to hear him. In order to secure a capacity house no admission will be charged. A silver offering will be taken. Mr. Rice comes to us fresh from the most successful recital he has ever given in practically every important city west from New York city that he left a little over two months ago.

There is no doubt but that the auditorium of the church will be packed to its capacity, and it is suggested that all who desire seats should be on hand promptly before 8:15 o'clock, when the recital is scheduled to start.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed with Sulphur
 It Brings Back Its Lustre and Abundance.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, waxy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look Young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

WREN HOUSES

Wren Houses, 10 cents. Special Sale Wednesday, 24th. Get them up in your door yards at once. Birds do not like a house which smells too new. They can be fastened against the corner of your house or against a tree. Do not place the house so that there is a landing in front of the entrance. If you do the English Sparrows will sit there and annoy or drive away the Wrens. Don't put two Wren houses close together, expecting to get two pairs. Wrens will not nest close to each other. They are the sweetest singers of all American birds. Within a few years we can have Fort Wayne full of them if the boys will help to protect them! Cats kill young Wrens. More cats less Wrens. A good way to grow Wrens about your home is to put your cat in a tight bag and take it automobile riding and drop it along the road 50 miles from home.

The Heidelberg College Glee club from Tiffin, Ohio, which has appeared here before and has pleased large audiences, will come to Fort Wayne and on Friday evening, April 16, will render a program at the St. John school hall at the corner of Webster and Washington streets. The club is being brought here under the auspices of the Exenda Bible class of the same church.

The club consists of twenty or more members and is considered one of the best. This is the annual tour of the club and in former years their tour has been a success from all standpoints.

Guy C. Fromm, the business manager of the club, has just completed arrangements for their appearance here and he promises to give Fort Wayne a good program. All the numbers will be something new and nothing which was left over from last year.

PLEAS FOR EX-CONVICTS.

Dr. F. E. Lyon is heard in Two Addresses in This City Sunday.

Dr. F. Emory Lyon, founder and superintendent of the Central Howard association, an organization which has as its primary purpose finding employment for men who have just been released from prison, delivered two addresses in this city Sunday in which he made a plea for the ex-convicts. In the morning he spoke at the First Presbyterian church and in the evening at the Plymouth Congregational.

During his address he spoke of the work of the society and gave figures to show that their work was a success. During the fourteen years of existence of the society, it has helped 12,557 men. Seventy-four per cent. of the men who were out on parole and who secured work through the society, completed their parole with credit.

Dr. Lyon stated that the society was also stimulating an interest in better county jails, saying that some of them were not fit to house animals, but that human beings were kept in them 365 days out of every year.

Actress Sings to Cheer Soldiers

Gladys Cooper.

Because British soldiers in field and hospital cannot go to the theater, London's favorite actress, Miss Gladys Cooper, brought the theater to the soldiers—that is, Miss Cooper and a company of distinguished players visited military hospitals in Rouen, Bologne and other French cities and presented sketches and sang songs for the heroes in splints and bandages.

Miss Cooper's biggest song hit was "Sister Susie Sewing Shirts for Soldiers."

SPRING MOVING IS QUITE LIVELY HERE

Police Records Under New Ordinance Show Much Shifting.

The first of May, by all tradition and custom the day fixed for the immovable feast of household moving, is still almost six weeks off, but is not being waited upon by impatient dwellers in Fort Wayne. The ordinance requiring draymen, truckmen and others who do hauling to report to police headquarters every Monday the names of persons who have changed their places of residence together with the addresses of the places moved from and moved to, makes of record that a deal of moving is going on. Last week Police Clerk Ed O'Connor registered something over 200 changes of address as filed by hauling concerns and up to Monday afternoon this week had almost 100 more, with prospects of a considerable increase. The regulation requires haulers to report every Monday their operations for the week previous. Chief Lenz says the men engaged in such teaming are giving very satisfactory compliance with the law and no prosecutions for delinquency have been necessary. The records filed by the haulers are copied and catalogued by a card index system so that track can be kept of all persons who change their place of abode in Fort Wayne. The ordinance was passed by the city council a few weeks ago at the behest of the Retail Merchants' association.

CREMATORY IN CONDITION.

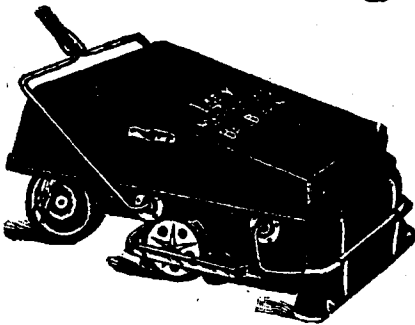

Superintendent John Harkenrider, of the city garbage crematory, has completed the repairs on the big retorts of the incinerator and it now is in condition for the heavier draft that the warmer months will make upon its capacity. Brickmasons have rebuilt the ovens.

Played Role of Christ in the Passion Play; Now Goes to War

Anton Lang Leaves Oberammergau to Fight for the Fatherland Against Allies Foes in France.

Oberammergau, Bavaria, March 22.—Anton Lang, who gained world fame by playing the role of Christ in the last two performances of the Passion Play, has hurried away to the front to kill and maim his fellow men in the name of war.

He has started from his home in this village to join a new corps of troops equipped with skis which the Germans have formed to fight the French Chasseurs Alpins in the Vosges.

Behind him he has left his wife and three children and a host of the villagers, the majority of whom have appeared in the Passion play—torn by conflicting emotions.

They are intensely patriotic and to them the fatherland means everything—and yet they are shocked.

It is almost inconceivable to them that Anton Lang, the man who played the role of the Christus, with such feeling and spiritualness, as perhaps no other person had, should now take up a gun and seek to slay his fellowmen—even in defense of the fatherland.

For Lang as a boy was more quiet than the other lads he played with in the streets of the narrow village and as he grew older was noted for the sensitive, almost saintly, cast of his features.

His father, who played the role of Herod, had prepared for fifty-three years in hopes of playing the role of the Christus. But when the ballots were cast choosing the actors for the 1900 play the son and not the father was chosen for the coveted role. Anton was then only twenty-five years old.

This performance of the Passion Play attracted a greater number of visitors than ever had visited the village previously and Lang for his remarkable performance of the difficult role was heralded the world over. In 1910 he was re-elected to play the part.

Nevertheless, he continued in his quiet, unassuming way, working as a potter, the trade he had learned from his father.

Anton Lang, at work in his pottery shop, and showing his portrayal of the Christus in the Passion play.

Visitors who flocked to his shop to stare and speak with him always embarrassed him.

An incident which occurred one afternoon serves to show his objection to the "limelight."

A party of two or three was in his shop buying pottery. As he stood at his counter showing his wares a group of four or five spectators gathered at the window and began to stare in.

Lang seemed to be more or less troubled for a few moments and then quietly asked one of his customers if he would object to his drawing the shade, saying, "I do not like for people to stare at me."

COLLEGE MEN FIND A MAMMOTH CAVE

Williams Students Equipped With Ropes Make Descent Into Great Hole.

Springfield, Mass., March 22.—Students of Williams college, under the auspices of the Good Government club, have been much interested and busily engaged for some time past in the exploring of a series of caves or underground caverns, which have been known to exist for years in the mountains to the west of the town, known as the Petersburg range, says the Union.

Some time ago a party of students found some caves in the range which had not before been visited, and during vacation these students took advantage of the opportunity to make a systematic investigation of these caves. There were eleven students in the party and the most important result of their exploration was the discovery that one of the caves extends probably 1,000 feet down into the earth and is presumably connected with a labyrinth of other subterranean passages.

Equipped with ropes, flashlights, lamps, hatchets, and so forth, a party composed of Donald Winston '15, president of the Good Government club; Samuel C. McKown '16, chairman of the ways and by-ways committee of the club; Harold M. Adams '15, William R. August '15, Elbert H. Bancker '16, Irving M. Day '16, Charles D. Kerner '15, Meredith Wood '16 and Philip O. Longyear '18, left Williams town bent on a thorough exploration trip. At Tri-State corners two more members, Frederick V. Geier '16 and Gilbert J. C. McCurdy '17, were added to the party.

On reaching the cave on the mountain a party of six went down. After going about eighty feet the cave narrowed and the party came back. Winston and McKown then went down with five others and found another passage and went down a long distance. Finally Winston and McKown crawled through a small hole and found they could go forward much farther. They came to the end of their journey, when the rays of their lamps revealed a yawning downward descent of the cave, shooting down at almost right angles. Turning their lamps over the edge, they could only see a winding, twisting, descent, seeming to extend down indefinitely. When a rock was cast over the brink it went tumbling and crashing from side to side down, but did not appear to stop. The sound grew fainter and fainter, until only a dull echo could be heard. The two undergraduates then turned around and made their way back. How many hundreds of feet the cave extended onward and downward could not be ascertained.

MERCHANTS UNITE IN BODY TO HELP CITY

New Chamber of Commerce is Formed at Portland, Maine.

Portland, Me., March 22.—The citizens' organization committee, composed of fifty men of Portland, with the assistance of W. B. Moore, civic organizer, has just completed one of the biggest and most successful three days' chamber of commerce campaigns ever witnessed in New England. Formal organization of the chamber will take place soon.

The membership campaign opened Tuesday morning, March 2, at 9 o'clock, and closed Thursday noon, March 4. The "Minute Men," comprising the membership solicitors, numbered 108, and they worked from 9 o'clock until noon each day.

It was the aim of the committee to secure 1,000 memberships and $20,000 annual income; when the work closed 1,101 members and an annual income of $20,410 had been secured for a period of three years. Members are continuing to affiliate, unsolicited, and there are now more than 1,150 members, with the annual income close to $23,000.

The movement has gripped Portland strongly. Maine's largest city, with its 65,000 people, has learned what co-operation and service on the part of her citizens can accomplish. Portland citizens have awakened more than ever to the city's natural advantages.

With the organization of the chamber of commerce there ceases to exist an institution old in point of service—the Portland Board of Trade. This trade body, chartered in 1853, has seen sixty-one years of activity and accomplished much with the facilities afforded. The board of trade merged into the new chamber of commerce to form the nucleus of the new and much larger body. Several other trade bodies, equally strong in their respective lines, have affiliated with the new civic and centralized force, made up of all classes of people of Portland.

BRINGING IN BAD INDIANS.
Gen. Scott's Mission Among Unruly Putes Successful.

Washington, March 22.—A laconic telegram came to the war department yesterday from Brigadier General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, at Bluff, Utah, announcing that the general was bringing in the four Pute Indians who recently led a band of their tribesmen on the warpath when the federal authorities attempted to arrest Tse-ne-Gat for murder. The message, addressed to Secretary Garrison, said:

"Successful. Have four Putes desired by Marshal Nebeker and am, at their desire, personally conducting them to Salt Lake to turn over to Marshal Nebeker. Am leaving everything peaceable behind us in southern Utah. Should reach Thompson Tuesday and Salt Lake Wednesday."

CUBS ARE MARKS FOR LEFT HANDERS' SKILL

Five Regulars on Team Who Hit from the Port Side.

Tampa, Fla., March 22.—National league managers will have an opportunity to make good use of their left-handed pitchers this season against the Cub team, if Manager Bressanah doesn't make a change in his lineup. He has five left-handed batters in the arrangement and six when a southpaw twirler is in the game. The only consequence of this can be that his club will be "soft picking" for the effective portersiders in the league.

Bressanah does not think it good policy to have more than three left-handed batters in the lineup, but circumstances are such that he finds it necessary to have five at present, and there is not much prospect for a change unless he succeeds in making a trade for a right-handed outfielder.

That his club will be an easy victim for a southpaw was shown in a recent exhibition game with the Athletics, which the Cubs won 6 to 2, when Bressanah twirled the first three innings and held them without a hit or anything that even resembled a swat. Bressanah did not seem to have a whole lot of anything either, but despite that he had no difficulty in getting rid of the left-handed hitters. As soon as the portersiders retired from the game and Reed and Wyckoff right-handers, appeared upon the scene, the Cubs began to hit and it was off then they accumulated eight hits for six runs.

The fact that Manager Bressanah is carrying five left-handed batters in his regular squad will not be overlooked by the opposing seven managers in the National league and undoubtedly they will find a way to give his men all the left-handed pitchers they can find.

Saier and Schulte do not have much difficulty in getting hits off southpaws, but at the same time they are not fattening their averages. Good and Williams are weak against them, and McLarry is said not to like them. Impair the batting of these three players and the Cubs have little strength left.

It is not probable, however, Manager Bressanah will retain the lineup he is using in the exhibition games, but it is almost safe to say he will start the race with it unless he manages to make a deal or two. He has no players on his club capable of supplanting any of the players he has on his first team. He cannot take any more for a trial since the league has but the limit down to twenty-one players.

The Funniest Play I Ever Saw in Baseball.

(By Jim Sheppard, one of the Greatest Outfielders of the Game.)

The funniest thing I ever recall was an Albi Heine Zimmerman tried to establish once it was late in 1908 and we, the Cubs, were fighting the New York Giants hard for the pennant. The final series in Chicago between the two clubs seemed to decide it and McGraw had sent me a the w son to stop us. He had us stopped, all but Tinker. The score was 0 to 0 in the fifth inning. I think when Tinker drove the ball a mile to left center.

Joe had his cap off in his hand and was circling those bases as fast as he ever ran in his life. Heine was coaching at third base. As Tinker started around the bag the ball still was down in the corner. Joe could have walked home but Heine dived out of the coaches' box, tackled him and almost threw him back to the bag. Tinker glanced again, saw the ball start in and fighting Heine he broke away and started home again, scoring easily. Chance was crazy. He called Heine everything but we won the game 1 to 0. "The sun was in my eyes—and I thought the ball was on the infield," said Heine.

Chance spluttered a minute and said: "That's the first time I ever heard of a sun shining from the northeast and I've spent my whole life in the atmosphere."

JACK JOHNSON IS TOO FAT—HERE'S FIRST PICTURE FROM HAVANA HEADQUARTERS

Take a look at the principal figure in this photograph, fans. He weighs 248 pounds and that's ten pounds less than he did on arriving at Havana. The experts there seem to agree that Jack Johnson cannot get himself down to good fighting weight before the battle with Jess Willard on April 4. Johnson can do his best work at 250, but if he gets off eighteen pounds between now and the fight he will be reducing too fast, the experts think, to be strong. This picture was taken as Johnson was doing road work with a trainer outside Havana.

SOUTH BEND WILL HAVE NO BASEBALL

South Bend, Ind., March 22.—This city will not have a team in the Southern Michigan baseball league this year, according to a statement made last night by Ed Smith, manager of the local club. Smith's efforts to retain the ball park here have failed, he said, and as a consequence he will transfer the South Bend club to Muskegon, Mich., the city which has been seeking a berth in the Southern Michigan league for the last few weeks.

ZANESVILLE WILL PLAY OTTAWA FIVE

The fast Zanesville basketball team will play the clever Ottawa Germans next Friday night at the St. Paul auditorium. This game was to have been played on Thursday night but was postponed one night by Manager Weaver on account of the Lyceum-Friar contest for the city championship, which is to be played at Concordia gymnasium. Much interest is being taken in the Zanesville-Ottawa match, which promises to be one of the best of the season. Both the Friar and Lyceum teams are practicing hard for the contest on Thursday evening.

FULLERTON CAN SEE NO CHANGE FOR CUBS

(By Hugh S. Fullerton).

Chicago, March 22.—Chicago's Cubs present one of the biggest interrogation marks of the coming baseball season. Here is just a fair ball team, slightly improved over last year, and forced by the new twenty-one man limit rule to cast away a whole raft of very promising young material and hold onto tried and known players of little more than mediocre ability.

Compared with the team that won pennants for Frank Chance, the Cubs are a joke, but compared on a basis of the present strength of the National league, they seem to have a pretty fair chance to run third or better. With a lot of luck they might win a pennant.

Remember, in doing this team, that it should have won the National league pennant last year with half way decent handling. Failure to hustle and use ordinary judgment kept them from grabbing the honors.

There are but three new men on Bressanah's team out of the army of recruits. They are McLarry, the second baseman from Louisville, and Adams and Standridge, unless you count Bob Eisher, who came back to them last year. The only surprise in the list is that Bressanah chose to keep Pete Kniesly and let Jimmy Johnston go.

I think he showed rare judgment in declining to listen to the fans, who judged Kniesly by his bad work last year. Pete is a better player than Johnston, and will show it.

The catching staff is perhaps the best in the league. Archer and Bressanah will do the bulk of the work, with Bubbles Hargrave, one of the most promising of youngsters, who is developing rapidly, to help.

Cheney, Vaughn, Humphries, Lavender, Zabel and Pierce are the vets of the pitching staff. Lavender may be traded later. Big Hippo Vaughn is showing a world of stuff, and is due to break out as the premier pitcher of the league. It is a magnificent staff, and constitutes the main strength of the team.

Saler will play first and McLarry second. Fisher is a most excellent fielder but can't hit much.

Zimmerman is Zimmerman, a bad ball player, who can hit hard, and who throws away about as many games as he wins with his bat.

Phelan and Corridan are the club's infielders and the chances are Phelan will be a regular before the season is very old.

SHOP AND RAIL ROAD NEWS

FRANK J. GREER GETS A BOUQUET

Office Associates Remind Him of His Birth Anniversary.

Frank J. Greer, chief time clerk for the train service of the Pennsylvania, found a mammoth bouquet of pink carnations and ferns on his desk this morning, when he arrived at the office. It bore a card with the greetings of the "boys," calling attention to the fact that Mr. Greer was passing another milestone on life's pathway today, and expressing the hope that he might see many more birthday anniversaries. Mr. Greer was born in Carrick, on Shannon, county Leitrim, Ireland, in 1891, and came to America when he was a small boy. He was seventeen years old, in 1878, when he took a position as brakeman in the freight service on the Pennsylvania. Some years later he met with an accident at Forest, Ohio, which incapacitated him for further train service and when he recovered from the injury he took a clerical position in the freight house. In 1893 he was promoted to chief clerk to the trainmaster and on July 1, 1899, he assumed his present position. Mr. Greer is an enthusiastic automobilist and motor boat owner and operator. His cottage at Wawasee is one of the most pleasant at that pretty resort and none enjoy a sojourn there more than he. In the days when bicycle riding was at its zenith, Mr. and Mrs. Greer were among the most enthusiastic cyclists of the city. Together they made a bicycle tour of some of the European countries.

WANT A NICKEL PLATE LINE.

Findlay Residents Figure Out Route for the Spur.

Business men of Findlay are desirous of securing passenger service of the Nickel Plate for their city. Under the plan which will be presented for consideration by officials of the local road, the passengers would be operated as at present until Arcadia was reached, then detour over the L. E. & W. to Findlay, then switch to the tracks of the C. H. & D. and return to McComb, where the trains would return to the tracks of the Nickel Plate and continue as at present. Another suggestion is the construction of a special track through Findlay from Arcadia to McComb, which would make a difference of but three miles, it is said. Freight trains could be operated over the present right-of-way, according to the suggestions which have been framed by the chamber of commerce of Findlay.

BRICKLAYERS AND PLASTERERS.

International Unions of Each Said to Be Preparing to Consolidate.

The executive boards of the Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers' International Union of America and the Journeyman Stone Cutters' International association will hold a joint meeting in Indianapolis in May to discuss the question of the amalgamation of the two organizations. The international headquarters of the two unions are in Indianapolis. The invitation of the bricklayers' organization, asking that the stone cutters' union affiliate with that body, was considered by the recent convention of the stone cutters' union in Kansas City. The representatives of the stone cutters unanimously adopted a resolution conferring on the general officers the power to decide the question.

Texas is now represented at the United States supreme court bar by a woman—Mrs. Hortense Ward, of Houston. She is active in state politics and two years ago she led the movement that won separate property rights for women in Texas.

fection and operation were painful, but not necessarily dangerous, and Mr. Hays will be on duty again soon. He has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania for many years and is one of the charter members of No. 78, Switchmen's Union of North America, which has honored him several times with office.

WILL CHANGE CONSTITUTION.

Ever since its organization the Electro-Technic club has held its elections in the spring, at the close of the fiscal year. It is now proposed to change the date to the fall, so that the incoming officers will start with the beginning of the series of lectures and entertainments, instead of having to deal with them at the tail end of their administration. It is argued that the officers will take hold of the active work of the club immediately after their election with greater enthusiasm than they will in the closing months, after a season of inactivity. With this end in view, President Joseph Schwartzkopf has appointed J. B. Mills, P. G. Duryee and R. O. Orff a committee to change the reading of the constitution and by-laws to make the desired change in date of election.

ATTENDED FUNERAL OF FATHER.

Master Mechanic and Mrs. George W. Smith attended the funeral of Daniel G. Mitten at Huntington yesterday. The deceased, who was the father of Mrs. Smith, died suddenly last Friday at his home, Granite City, Ill., and the remains were brought to Huntington and interred in Mr. Hope cemetery yesterday. Mr. Mitten was taken suddenly ill after some of the children had been summoned to his home on account of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Mitten, and he died a short time afterwards. The aged widow was unable to attend the funeral. The family formerly resided in Huntington.

DOLLAR RATE BEGINS APRIL 18.

District Passenger Agent F. P. Farin and Ticket Agent C. A. Pritchard, of the Nickel Plate, were advised yesterday by circular letters that the Sunday dollar rate for 100 miles and return would become effective this year Sunday, April 18. One of Fort Wayne's western limit in Valparaiso and the eastern limit Green Springs, Ohio. This year the rate becomes effective two weeks earlier than it did last year. Last year they remained in effect until December 27, but the limit for 1935 was not given in the circulars. No rate arrangement of recent years has been as popular with the public as the dollar rate on the Nickel Plate.

TO AGREE ON 1935 SCALE.

Committees representing the painter employers and the painters' union will meet in Leland hall Tuesday evening to consider the proposition affecting wages offered by the union. It is desired to have all members of the union present at the meeting Wednesday night to hear the report of the committee, which parties interested believe, will be satisfactory. The local union is taking on more activity as the season for work approaches. Five of the old and three new applicants have been taken into the membership.

Some years ago he was instrumental in starting several organizations in the city that are now among the most prominent of Fort Wayne's labor unions. One of these was the Meat Cutters and Butcher Workers. He afterwards became organizer in this territory for the union.

Here's an unconventional view of a very conventional young society woman, Miss Fleischmann, one of the belles of Coronado beach and the daughter of the recent magnate, Julius Fleischmann, of Cincinnati, O.

It looks like a summer scene, but the picture was taken a few days ago for every day business in the city.

TWO SUITS AGAINST CHIEF FOR DIAMOND

Chief of Police Charles Lenz is now defendant in two different suits for the recovery of one diamond ring and is patiently waiting for the rival litigations to be fought out in the courts. The ring is one taken from Ray Jackson, a criminal arrested in this city several weeks ago. Jackson said he got it from his wife, Mary Jackson, of Lagro, Ind., who gave it to him to sell, which he was attempting to do when arrested. Mrs. Harvey Gass, of Huntington, says the ring was stolen from her by Mrs. Jackson, and she had the Lagro woman arrested for grand larceny and then in a replevin suit in Justice Grabner's court in Fort Wayne got a judgment against Chief Lenz for possession of the ring. Mrs. Jackson was acquitted of the larceny charge last week in the Huntington circuit court, proving to the satisfaction of a jury that her story of having received the ring five years ago as a gift was true. Now, through Attorney W. A. Branyan, of Huntington, Mrs. Jackson has sued Chief Lenz in the Allen circuit court for the diamond. Chief Lenz will hold on to the ring until the courts finally settle the question of ownership.

New Orleans is to have a school of salesmanship for the benefit of clerks.

ward of Terre Haute would have been much larger in the last election if the women watchers had not been present, was deduced from the testimony of a number of negroes who told of their efforts and successes at repeating. Several of the witnesses testified to being turned away from the polls by the women.

"A little woman said I could not vote because I had been there before. I know she was telling the truth, so I didn't dispute her word, but turned away," testified one witness. Another woman recognized him by a pink collar he was wearing.

According to testimony today, the regulation price for votes in the last election was $1 each, but in two precincts, B. of the First ward, and the "Bagdad" district, $2 was paid for a vote. Clarence Stark, a negro saloon-keeper, who has pleaded guilty, testified that Chief of Police Heller, who also pleaded guilty, promised him "the gambling privileges for the Bagdad precinct if he would get out the registration and vote."

Jurors in Best of Health.
Members of the jury, which is hearing the Terre Haute election fraud cases in United States district court here, entered today upon the third week of their confinement apparently in the best of health.

With the exception of the trips out for their meals and long walks on Sunday the twelve men are confined to quarters on the third floor of the federal building. At least three and possibly four weeks will be required to complete the case, but bailiffs in charge of the jury say there has been no complaint from the men.

through East Prussia, on the north and simultaneously into Silesia from Galicia. The Russians succeeded in penetrating Galicia, but the success of the Austrians in holding Przemyśl and Cracow blocked attempts to invade Germany across the Silesian border. The siege of Przemyśl has been one of the most picturesque phases of the war in the east. The Austrian garrison defended the city with determination and vigor and during the earlier months inflicted considerable losses on the Russians by frequent sorties. The only means of communication with the outside world was by wireless telegraphy and aeroplane. Although there have been several reports recently that the surrender of Przemyśl was imminent, news from the city itself described conditions there as nearly normal, except for the regulations imposed by the military authorities. All supplies of food was taken over by the army officials, who issued rations to soldiers and civilians alike. The last direct word from Przemyśl before the announcement of its capture was that the Russian attacks were infrequent and that the defenders had little to do.

Przemyśl was well stocked with ammunition and provisions when the siege began, although there was sharp discrepancy between the Russian and Austrian estimate of the length of time it would be able to hold out. There have been indications recently that hunger was an effective ally of the Russians, for it was reported that aeroplanes were making daily flights to Przemyśl with cargoes of provisions.

Last week the Russians brought down an Austrian aeroplane said to have been laden with fanned beef for the Przemyśl garrison. The fall of Przemyśl was forecasted in a Petrograd dispatch last Wednesday, which said that the capitulation of the fortress was a matter of only a few days. Austrian soldiers captured by the Russians during unsuccessful sorties said the garrison was existing on famine rations and that the hospitals were crowded. The outer defenses of the city were said to have been put out of commission. Przemyśl has been described as the key to the Austrian empire. The opinion has been expressed by Russian commentators that its occupation would facilitate operations against the interior of Austria, which hitherto had been attacked by insignificant results. Beyond Przemyśl lies the great and prosperous wheat country of Galicia. The city lies sixty miles west of Lemberg which the Russians captured several months ago. It is a thriving city of about 50,000 inhabitants, the large majority of whom are Poles. It is situated on San river and is the seat of a Roman Catholic bishop and a Greek Catholic unit bishop.

The city was strongly defended with outer and inner works well equipped with modern artillery.

LOSE; THEN WIN AGAIN.

French Report Recapture of Trenches North of Arras.

Paris, March 22.—The official statement given out today by the French war department says:

"To the north of Arras, at Notre Dame de Lorette, a German counter attack on Saturday night deprived us of some sections of trenches. We recaptured them yesterday."

"At La Basselle, northeast of Albert, mine warfare continues. After having blown up one of the enemy's galleries we occupied the great part of the former."

"During Sunday Rheims received about fifty shells."

"In the Argonne we inflicted two serious reverses on the enemy. Near Bagatelle, we blew up three mines and two companies of our troops stormed a German trench in which they maintained their positions despite strong counter attacks. Five hundred yards from there the enemy, after exploding two mines and bombarding our trenches, rushed to attack on a front of about 250 yards. After some very hot hand to hand fighting our opponents were hurled back in spite of their reinforcements, with heavy losses."

and in compliance with instructions in your telegram March 19, 1915, we have decided to hold the 5-inch rifle from El Morro. Ship then came to anchor under El Morro. None was injured. Ship returned to her anchorage in the harbor. In presence of collector of customs, March 19, I personally informed German consul and commander of Odenwald that force would be used if necessary to prevent vessel leaving without clearance."

Refused to Allow Inspection.

It was learned here, however, that the Odenwald was warned that she could not leave San Juan until the port officers had an opportunity for thorough inspection. Permission for that was refused. Officials here feel convinced that the Odenwald while not loaded with supplies of coal and food that are usually carried by merchantmen, may have intended to fit out on the high seas with guns and ammunition as an auxiliary cruiser like the Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

Local officials in Porto Rico suspected that the Odenwald was planning to take that course and had the United States consented to her departure under the circumstances it was held by the state department that it thereby might have created another Alabama case.

Assistant Secretary Peters, of the treasury department, who is looking after the Odenwald case, was in consultation with state department officials today.

Stockholder Says Baseball Concer nis Hopelessly Insolvent!

Indianapolis, March 22.—Alleging that the Indianapolis Federal league baseball club is insolvent, Piny W. Bartholomew, a stockholder, brought suit today to place the club in the hands of a receiver. He alleges that in addition to an indebtedness of $75,000, the club is indebted to the stockholders for the non-payment of 5 per cent. cash dividends on $50,000 worth of stock.

Judge Bartholomew alleges that the club is in an embarrassed financial condition and is losing money every day. He further alleges in his suit that he has been informed that the corporation owning the club is about to displace its property and assets by transferring the club to unknown parties without in any way providing for or securing the payment to its stockholders or debtors some already due them.

The case will be heard tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock before Judge Vincent Clifford, of the superior court.

Various reports of efforts to induce the United States to recognize General Villa were met at the white house today with the statement that the president's policy

PRESIDENT ANSWERS LETTER FROM POSSY

Wilson and Two Little Belgians in Brussels in Correspondence.

Washington, March 22.—An exchange of letters written between President Wilson and two little Belgians in Brussels, in which the children thanked the president for the food sent by Americans and the president expressed his appreciation of their gratitude was made public today at the white house. The children, twins, 9 years old, wrote as follows:

"Dear Mr. Wilson: Thank you very much for the good bread. The poor people in our villages were starving for they had nothing to eat but now that you have sent over to our dear little country provisions of wheat, both rich and poor can live, thanks to the Americans."

"Best love and wishes from little, 'PUSSY DEPOELBERCH'."

Pussy's brother added the following note: "I join in with my sister in thanking you too, for it is jolly good bread, enough to satisfy any school-boy's hunger."

In reply the president sent the following letter in his own hand writing: "My dear little friends: Your letter touched me very deeply and I thank you for it with all my heart. It makes me very happy to think that what generous Americans have done to relieve the hunger and distress in your country has brought you the help you needed and given you a little happiness in the midst of these terrible days of war. I hope that you will grow up to be strong to do the work that will have to be done in the days of peace that are coming. It would be a greater pleasure to me if some day I might see you both when those happier times have come. Your sincere friend, 'WOODROW WILSON.'"

IN SHORT QUARTER HER DREAM ENDED

Linda Bennett and Spouse Separated Soon After Marriage.

In a year's short quarter love's dream ended for Linda Bennett and now almost two and one-half years' after the separation from George Bennett she is suing him for divorce. She alleges that for two years and more he has failed to give her any support. They were married in July, 1912 and three months later they had drifted apart. There are no children.

Almost 35 Years Together.
After a married life that began in December, 1880, Alice Matthews has begun action in the superior court for divorce from Jackson Matthews, from whom she separated the 2nd of this month. She says that he has failed to support her adequately. The court has issued an order restraining the defendant from molesting her at her home, 806 East Wayne street, as elsewhere, and to prevent Albert Weber, his employer, from paying him his wages.

Boasted of His Conquests.
According to a complaint for divorce first filed in the superior court by Mae E. Boals, her husband, Harvie A. Boals, went too far with his Don Juan stuff when he began to boast of his conquests among the ladies and taunted his wife with the names of the women he met and of his relations with them.

These statements, she says in her complaint, were as a matter of fact true and have destroyed her love for him and given her great pain and anguish of mind. She says that early in the present month she pleaded with him to change his ways of life, but that he refused and said he would maintain relations with whomever he chose. They were married June 27, 1908, and separated March 13, 1915.

Notes of the Courts.

Charles D. Nolan, receiver for the Wayne Amusement company, reports in finality to the superior court that he has received $250 by the sale of the company's property and has paid it out—$225 on a chattel mortgage and $25 for receiver's expenses and attorney's fees—and asks for his discharge as receiver.

A petition having been filed in the circuit court to have the estate of the late Edward Gilmartin appraised for inheritance taxes, a report is filed showing that the estate consisted of personal property of the value of $18,171.61, real estate of the value of $44,646, a total value of $62,817.61, upon which there is an offset of $3,361.82 in debts, leaving a net value of $59,455.79.

There has been filed in the circuit court an amendment to the third paragraph of the complaint in the suit of Arthur C. Dinklage vs. the Grand Rapids & Indiana railroad for $10,000 damages.

After a jury had come together in the superior court Monday to hear the suit of Edward and Hattie Johnson against Joseph Loos the plaintiff's suit was dismissed. The action involved an alleged encroachment of a building owned by the defendant on property owned by the plaintiffs.

George E. Salisbury has been granted a divorce from Mary C. Salisbury by the superior court.

Judgment for $300 was given to the plaintiff in the suit of John H. Elmer, et al., vs. Edward M. Shell, in the superior court.

Albert G. Walter was given judgment for $116.39 against George and Jennie Weeks in the superior court.

The circuit court has granted changes of venue from this county in the following cases: Laura E. Robinson vs. the Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction company, to DeKalb county; Charles Anderson vs. Malissa Van Horn, to Adams county; Charles H. Buck vs. Mike Cooma, to DeKalb county.

SUPPLIES FOR POOR FARM.

The county commissioners on Monday received bids and awarded contracts for furnishing supplies to the poor farm.

FOUNDER ST. JOSEPH HOSPITAL PASSES AWAY

Sister Maria Henrica Dies at the Advanced Age of 82 Years!

Venerable Sister Maria Henrica, the founder of the St. Joseph hospital of Fort Wayne, died at the hospital Monday morning at the advanced age of 82 years. Sister Henrica was known all over the United States as a founder of hospitals, and her death will be a shock to her many acquaintances and friends. She came to this country from Germany in 1868 shortly after she had made her perpetual vow with eight other Sisters, including her only sister, Maria Bella, who still survives her. She came directly to Hesse Cassel and one year later, seeing that there was a field for a hospital in this city, she began work of organization. She remained here four years and saw the wonderful progress the institution made in that short length of time. From that time on until four years ago she traveled over the entire country and founded hospitals.

She retired from this country work four years ago, but since that time she has constantly been at the hospital where she gave instructions and advice to the other Sisters. She was held in high esteem by the other Sisters of the institution and they feel that her death will be a great loss.

The deceased was born in Germany in 1833 and her name was Josephine Siwecke. The only surviving relative is Sister Bella, who is eight years younger and who is also serving at the St. Joseph hospital. The one wish of Sister Henrica, that she would die at the first hospital which she founded, was granted her.

Funeral services Wednesday morning at 7:45 o'clock at the chapel of the St. Joseph hospital. Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

50,000 ARE LED TO CHRIST BY SUNDAY

Baseball Evangelist Has Had Amazing Success in Philadelphia.

BILLY SUNDAYISMS.

You've gotta hand it to the city rube for swiftness in coming to Christ.

I want to give every soul in this country a chance to hit the sawdust trail and take the path to glory.

I don't know anything more about the "higher criticism" than a jack-rabbit does about ping pong, but I know that a soul really converted is a wonderful thing.

When folks put money into religion you may know they are convinced of the goodness of God.

I now long to tell the gospel to the folks in all the great cities of America.

(By Harry Payne Burton.)

Philadelphia, Pa., March 22.—"Yep, I've gotta hand it to the big city folks. They certainly get hep to God and His goodness faster than any other folks I ever met!"

In such typical Billy Sundayese did the most famous evangelist in the world sum up for me his own impressions of the biggest, the most phenomenal soul-saving campaign he has ever engaged in—that he is just drawing to a close in Philadelphia after eleven strenuous weeks.

I had caught Sunday in his bedroom while he was changing his clothes between the afternoon session at the great tabernacle and the evening one which he was to open there within another hour.

He was just slipping a dressing gown over his B. V. D.'s. The skin on his arms and legs was sleek as an athlete's and the muscles rippled beneath as efficiently as when he was a star on the diamond. He threw himself on the heavy mahogany empire bed, passed his hands over his face which was indeed a little weary. Then he grinned.

"This revival in Philadelphia has been the most wonderful experience of my life," he said, his eyes shining.

"Why, this is my eleventh week here and we have conducted in that time fifteen full major meetings every week and never once has there been a lull. Never once has a single meeting sagged in attendance, in enthusiasm, in converts, in collections.

"The full value of this can be realized only when you know that the tabernacle here holds 17,000 people and that means a daily attendance of 24,000 and 50,000 on Sundays!

"The number of souls which have hit the sawdust trail here is the thing that thrills me though. Think of it, man, 500 of them a day on the average and 1,500 on Sunday—50,000 souls brought to Christ in Philadelphia in eleven weeks!

"Fifty thousand people who have come to Billy Sunday's Christ means something to a city.

"It means tremendous force for good. It means active Christianity that will do any city more good than all the theoretical Christianity—the higher criticism kind—that can be shot out of a 42-centimeter cannon.

"I don't know any more about the higher criticism than a jack rabbit does about ping pong, but I do know that a soul really converted is a wonderful thing.

"When folks put money into religion you may know they are convinced of the goodness of God. Here we have raised $60,000 for current expenses, $15,000 for the local charities and on the final Sunday but one, the day reserved for me, the money simply poured in. That contribution is well over $40,000 now and when it's all counted it will be $50,000 without a doubt.

"You could not have told me that a great city would respond to God as Philadelphia has. I thought that my work lay with the folks back home in the towns and the smaller cities. I thought grill rooms and tango parlors had hardened most city-bred people far beyond the softening influence of Christ. But I find I am wrong. They respond more quickly than any.

"I think they have seen so much terrible, heart-breaking distress in the great bee hives of men that they long for the good, for Christ, even more than other people. At least they appear to.

"You've gotta hand it to the city rube for swiftness in coming to Christ!

"I will admit that I was afraid to take a great big city—afraid I couldn't get away with it. But I see now that I wasn't ready for it before. I didn't have the experience.

"But I see how God has worked. He brought me to the city when I was ready to come to the city. The city and I have found each other. I long to tell the gospel now to the folks in all the great cities of America. If it is God's will I want to pour it once into every ear in all this country—to give every breathing soul in our great beautiful country a chance to hit the sawdust trail and take the path to glory, to Billy Sunday's Christ!"

Sunday's Philadelphia campaign is no doubt the climax of his career and places him on a footing with the greatest evangelists of the past. The estimated number of 50,000 converts in the Quaker city, if correct, is almost twice the number recorded in Pittsburgh which totalled 26,601. Some of the other cities where Sunday preached in the past with the number of converts are as follows:

Columbus, O., 18,000; McKeesport, Pa., 10,000; South Bend, Ind., 6,000; Wilkesbarre, Pa., 16,000; Johnstown, Pa., 11,000; Steubenville, O., 8,000; and Toledo, O., 8,000.

BLUFFTON REVIVAL ENDS.

Evangelist Stephens Ends Campaign With 500 Conversions.

Bluffton, Ind., March 22.—With a record of 500 conversions the evangelistic campaign of Rev. George T. Stephens and his party was concluded last night in the big tabernacle here. The crowds at all of yesterday's tabernacle services were the largest of the meetings. Last night hundreds of people could not gain admission. The free will offerings for the evangelist yesterday morning amounted to $1,714 and other offerings since bring the total to something above $2,000. Saturday afternoon the Sunday school of Bluffton had a big parade as a feature of the meetings and there were 832 pupils of the Sunday schools in the procession. Rev. Stephens and his corps of assistants will rest this week and next Sunday night will inaugurate a month's series of meetings in Montpelier, where a big tabernacle has already been erected and the churches of the city have completed extensive organization for the campaign.

REFORMED MAN FALLS OFF.

Huntington, Ind., March 22.—Joe Murphy, who was converted last winter, while serving a term in the Huntington jail and who held almost nightly prayer meetings for the transients who were given free lodgings at police headquarters, has fallen from the "water wagon" and from grace. After a long period of sobriety and strict pursuit of the straight and narrow path of righteousness, something toppled the little Irishman from his seat and he got drunk. Hearing the police were looking for him he purchased a railway ticket and left the city. He is an ex-convict and asserts that his father was a singing evangelist in New York. An accident that afflicted him with a broken ankle a few weeks ago probably had something to do with his relapse to former ways.

AGES OF FOUR AGGREGATE 328.

Huntington, Ind., March 22.—Celebration of the ninetieth birth anniversary of Mrs. John Gelzeichter, of this city, brought together a brother and two sisters whose ages combined with her own aggregate 328 years. Her brother, Matthias Nuck, of Huntington, is 85; Mrs. Nicholas Dagus, four miles west of Huntington, is 80, and Mrs. John Rousch, of this city, is 73. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nuck, came from Bavaria, Germany, to Clear Spring township, this county, in frontier days. Mrs. Rousch was born there in 1841. Mrs. Gelzeichter was at one time employed in the household of Chief Lafontaine, head of the Miami Indians, and she can still narrate interesting stories of the early days in Huntington county.

AGED MAN IN THE TOILS.

Warsaw, Ind., March 22.—Charges of encouraging delinquency were filed in the circuit court by Prosecuting Attorney Homer Longfellow against Newton Hoover, an old soldier and a resident of East Warsaw. According to the charge Hoover on March 1 of this year took to his home Lydia Hoffman, a young girl, an orphan and whose home is in Pierceton, and kept her there until March 16, when officers came to the home and took her away. According to the statement of this girl, the aged man during this time contributed to her delinquency. While staying at the Hoover home the girl had been working at the overall factory.

HAD BIG REVIVAL PARADE.

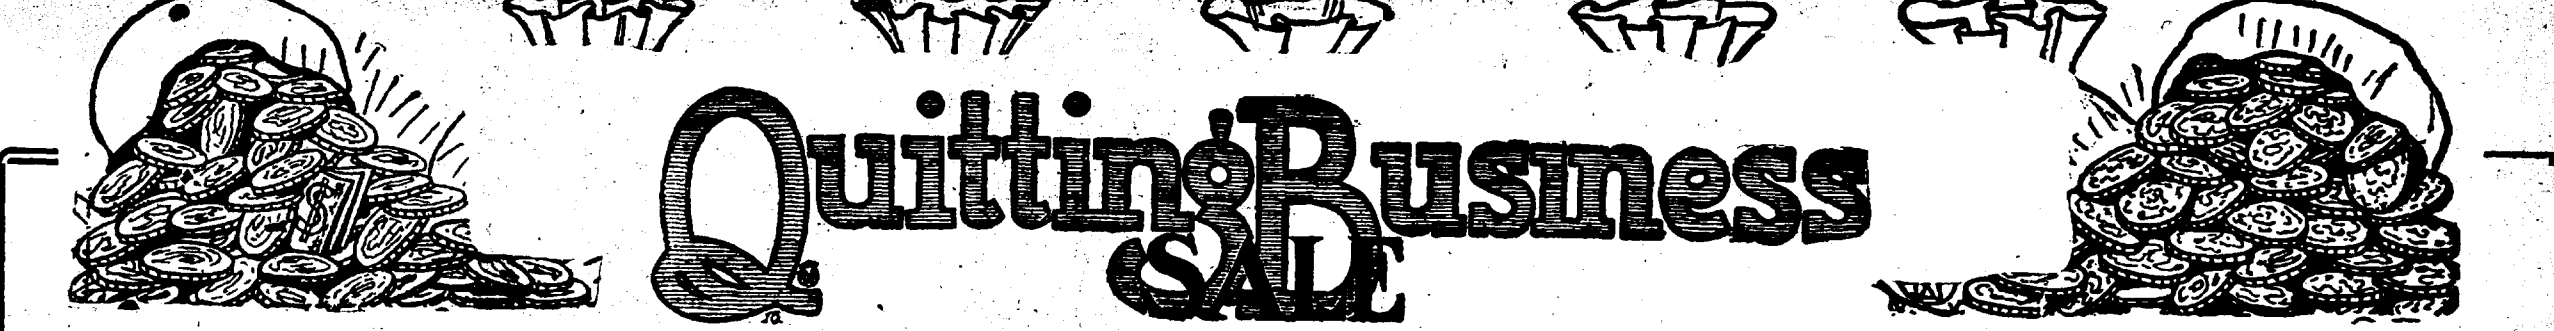

Decatur, Ind., March 22.—The Sunday school rally and parade Saturday afternoon in connection with the Honeywell meetings was a great success. After marching over several of the streets of the city the parade ended at the tabernacle, where a big meeting was held. The parade was led by the Honeywell party, consisting of Rev. Honeywell, Rev. and Mrs. McCombe and Prof. and Mrs. Clase, and next to them the City band. Nine schools, six in Decatur and three from out of the city, were in the line of march, which was several blocks in length. It took exactly twelve minutes for the parade to pass a single given point.

WILL HAVE A MAUSOLEUM.

Columbia City, Ind., March 22.—The Chubbuck Granite Company has sold a family mausoleum to A. L. Obenchain, of South Whitley, and when it is erected next summer it will be the only one of the kind in the county. It will be built in the South Whitley cemetery. The mausoleum will have six cribs in the center and will be finished on the outside with sawed stone and on the inside with polished Italian marble. Its dimensions will be twelve feet long, eleven and a half feet wide and thirteen feet high, and it will be a handsome piece of work of its kind. Mr. Obenchain is the father of Ralph Obenchain, who had his neck broken a year or more ago at the Purdue tank scrap.

DEATH COMES ON BIRTHDAY.

Bluffton, Ind., March 22.—Mrs. Mary Wilson, widow of the late Abram T. Wilson, of this county, and affectionately known to an extensive circle of acquaintances as "Aunt Mary," died at her home here Saturday. Her death fell upon the seventy-sixth anniversary of her birth and many of her friends had remembered that it was her natal day and sent her cards bearing their good wishes. Death was due to blood poisoning and pneumonia. She was born in Ohio in 1839 and at the age of twelve years came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, to Wells county. Her husband died in 1883.

TO TAKE PASTEUR TREATMENT.

Portland, Ind., March 22.—Miss Nancy Bishop, of near Pennville, is suffering from a badly lacerated hand, the result of being attacked by a dog afflicted with rabies, and has been taken to Indianapolis where she will be treated at the state Pasteur institute. She was bitten last week but not until after a cow showed unusual signs of viciousness and finally developed hydrophobia was it known that the dog was mad. Both the cow and dog have been killed and efforts are being made to locate a cat that is known to have been bitten by the dog just a few days ago, through fear that it may also cause trouble.

WOLCOTTVILLE MAN DIES.

Wolcottville, Ind., March 22.—William Raby died very suddenly at his home in this place at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. He had been ill for some time but was up town in the afternoon. Returning home he suffered an attack with his heart and Mrs. Raby went to summon a physician. When she returned that was dead. Mr. Raby was 60 years of age. He spent his whole life in this town or immediate vicinity. He is survived by a widow, two sons, Roy and James, of Wolcottville, and two daughters, Mrs. Beulah Long, of Goheen, and Mrs. George Gardner, of Sturgis, Mich.

AT 75 YEARS TAKES A BRIDE.

Huntington, Ind., March 22.—"I have seen three-quarters of a century and am still feeling fine; in fact this is one of the happiest moments of my life," said Cyrus Hughes, 75 years old, a retired farmer of Huntington, when he obtained a license to marry Mary E. Class, 61 years old. Mr. Hughes' first wife died in 1908 and Mrs. Class' husband died in 1911.

GLASS HELD WITHOUT BOND.

Plymouth, Ind., March 22.—Ora Glass, illegitimate child of Jennie Baird, of Fort Wayne, at his home at Twin Lakes, February 11, a few hours after it was born, was given a preliminary hearing Saturday and bound over to the circuit court without bail. Jennie Baird was here as witness and testified that Glass was the father of her child and that he said to her he had "killed the d—d baby."

AGED WOMAN IS BURIED.

Chubbuck, Ind., March 22.—Mrs. Mary Reed, aged 75, for many years a resident of the southern part of Noble county, died at her home near Chubbuck, death resulting from a cancer. The deceased was born in Ohio and came to this section when she was seven years old. She was united in marriage in 1858 and was the mother of nine children, four of whom survive. Funeral services were conducted Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Church of God at Sugar Grove, Rev. Mr. Ishelman officiating.

MAY BE A "DOPE" FIEND.

Hartford City, Ind., March 22.—It is now believed that Leonard Banta, the Dayton, O., man who went temporarily insane at the home of his father-in-law, Peter Judy, north of the city, is a "dope" fiend that the enforcement of a new Harrison law may have cut off his usual supply of drugs and caused him to act as he did earlier in the week. The man has been taken home by his father.

SMALLPOX IN MARKLE.

Markle, Ind., March 22.—The prevalence of smallpox in this community is interfering with public gatherings. The play that was to have been given by the Markle high school pupils was postponed by order of Superintendent Craig, who thought the public safety, as well as the prosperity of the event would be promoted by deferring it.

JURY COULD NOT AGREE.

Plymouth, Ind., March 22.—After being out for twenty hours the jury which heard the case against Harry Hetfield, of Bourbon, charged with violating the liquor laws of the state, could not agree and were finally discharged. Hetfield, who is a cigarmaker, until a couple of years ago resided in Warsaw.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is an old saying that "Nature cures, the doctor takes the fee," but as everyone knows you can help nature very much and thereby enable it to effect a cure in much less time than is usually required. This is particularly true of colds. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough mucus and acts as a restorative to the system, to a healthy condition.

PEACE SUNDAY IS OBSERVED.

Special Services in All Roman Catholic Churches in Country.

New York, March 22.—Peace Sunday was observed in Roman Catholic churches throughout the country yesterday in compliance with directions from Pope Benedict XV., who sent a prayer from Rome, which was read by the clergy and which invoked divine providence to give back to the world peace and tranquility.

Besides the reading of the papal prayer for peace at all masses, special services were held. These included solemn high masses and special sermons urging the people to pray individually for a restoration of peace in Europe. The blessed sacrament was exposed to view in nearly all the churches throughout the day and in the evening special vesper services took place.

Cardinal Farley was present at solemn high mass in St. Patrick's cathedral in New York city and in the cathedrals of other large cities. Archbishops and bishops either officiated or were present at service.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, March 22.—Decreasing stocks at Liverpool tended today to lift the wheat market here, but prices did not seem to stand much selling on the upturn. The opening, which varied from 1/4c, declined to 1/2c advance, was followed by a material advance all around and then a moderate setback.
The close was heavy at a loss of 1/4c to 1/2c net.
Unfavorable weather gave some strength to corn. Selling was only scattered. After opening a shade to 1/4c lower, prices rose all above Saturday night's level.
Closing prices were unsettled at 1/4c under Saturday.
Oats hardened on account of reports of delayed seedling. Offerings were light. Provisions went sharply down grade. Sellers seemed to be chiefly influenced by the enforcement of the embargo orders in Europe.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, March 22.—Specialties were again the central figure at the outset of this week's operations on the stock exchange. Bethlehem Steel once more overshadowed all other issues, selling up to 69 1/2, a gain of 3 1/2 points from last Saturday's close, and a new high record price. Motor shares came next in prominence, with gains of one to over three points. The so-called leaders or former speculative favorites were comparatively backward.
Bethlehem Steel yielded more than one-half its early gain largely as a result of selling for profits, but went higher in the second hour, touching 70 1/2. Other specialties also moved feverishly while U. S. Steel and Reading rose and fell within more narrow limits.

BUB-HIS ALWAYS TO BLAME

KEPT PARLOR ONLY FOR HIS PATRONS

John Fiers' Cellar Lair of Tiger is Raided by the Police.

In pleading guilty in the city court Monday morning to a charge of keeping a gambling house, John J. Fiers, proprietor of a barber shop at 343 East Lewis street, told the court that he had been maintaining the resort in the basement beneath his shop for two or three years and that it was solely for the accommodation and pleasure of his tonorial customers, who liked once a week to take a little twist at the tail of the tiger. There never had been a "kittie," never a "rake-off," nor in short anything that could convict him of running his nice tight little underground parlor for profit. Fiers was fined $25 and costs and six men who were found at a table playing poker for the chips and coin in front of them, when the police broke into the room about 5 o'clock Sunday evening, pleaded guilty and were fined $10 and costs each. No jail sentences were added, Judge Kerr, expressing the belief that Fiers had told the truth about the character of the place. Fiers heartily promised that there would be no more gambling in, above or below his barber shop. Of the six men who were guests of the place at the time of the raid all are working men and none of them is known as a professional gambler, facts which inclined the court to mercy in dealing with them. Besides Fiers the men arrested were J. A. Wilkenson, Charles McGuinness, William Brown, Jacob Wiedemann, William Wimmer and Francis Gordon. The raiding squad consisted of Patrolmen Brandt, Paul and Petgen, Court Bailiff George Eisenhut and Edward O'Connor, private secretary to Chief Lens. While Brandt and O'Connor guarded the front, Eisenhut, Paul and Petgen got into the cellar through a deliessen store and, breaking down a door and entered the snug little room where Fiers let his friends play poker. All were gathered in at the time, save Wiedemann, who got away. After the patrol wagon made a futile trip for him Monday morning he voluntarily appeared at the headquarters. All of the others had posted bond for their appearance and were released Sunday evening.

Wife Charges Larceny.
William Schoppman, 423 Buchanan street, was in court on a charge of petit larceny preferred by his wife, 425 Buchanan street. Mrs. Schoppman stated that while she was out nursing sick folks her husband stole $12 and prolonged a spree upon which he had been at work for some time. She said he was a fine man when sober, but a bad lot when "speering." Schoppman admitted it all along with his plea of guilty and Judge Kerr continued the case until the 30th inst. to give the man a chance to brace up.

Bessie Farnan in Again.
Bessie Farnan, who was in court a few days ago on a drunk charge and was released, was picked up again Saturday in company with William Roling, of 425 Masterson avenue. Both were drunk. The Farnan woman was ill and not able to be tried and both cases were continued until Wednesday.

Other City Court Cases.

John Walker, an aged man, held two or three days last week on a drunk charge and released Saturday to get out of town, was picked up helplessly drunk in the east yards Saturday evening. Judge Kerr sent him over for eleven days.

These drunks were disposed of: Walter Virgil, who was following and accosting women down town, $5 and costs; Ed Sullivan, $1 and costs; John Dunn, Joe Lee, Philip Bruns, Mike Hart, Jimmy Wier and William Eysenart, continued indefinitely.

John Gorral, charged with public indecency, was allowed to go. He was drunk when arrested.

The case against Lee Christwell, for assault and battery, and the case against Joseph Duffy, for loitering, were continued until April 10 and their bonds were maintained at $1,000 each. Christwell is charged with assaulting a man named Sullivan during a quarrel in the Wabash railway yards over a bottle of alcohol and of having knocked him under the wheels of an engine by which one of Sullivan's legs was cut off. Sullivan has had to undergo a reamputation of the injured leg. Duffy is held as a witness.

A drunken vagr was arrested Monday morning by Officer Majors and booked for loitering. He was trying to sell brass rings with glass sets for $3 to $5 each. He was confined a week and his bond was fixed at $300.

PRAISES FORT WAYNE POLICE.

H. H. Grigg, of Kendallville, superintendent for Indiana of the World's Purity federation, an organization that especially wages war on the social evil, has high praise for the Fort Wayne police department and general conditions in Fort Wayne, after making an investigation here. "The Fort Wayne police department has gone far toward eliminating vice from this city and has done about all that could be done under the laws with which they had to work," said Mr. Grigg. "The recent legislature has given further laws that will help to reach vice and wipe it out." He states that there are many places in Fort Wayne where people may meet for immoral purposes, but no houses of ill-fame of the common type. After a talk with Chief of Police Charles Lens, Sunday, Mr. Grigg stated that after a visit to his home, in Kendallville, he would return here, where he would then be assisted by two agents of the Purity Federation and evidence would be obtained as to immoral places. He said an effort would be made to prosecute the owners of property used for unlawful purposes. Mr. Grigg said before leaving the city that he has been assured by Chief Lens of hearty police co-operation.

SALOON ENTERED; NOTHING GONE.

Two panes of glass were removed from a rear window of the James

O'Ryan saloon, 1406 Calhoun street, and the place was entered, but so far as the police and the proprietor could discover nothing was taken.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Clyde Barnhill Convicted of Slaying at Boonville.

Boonville, Ind., March 22.—Clyde Barnhill was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in the circuit court for killing William (Bud) O'Loughlin in the public square here on the night of January 15, last. The verdict, which was returned at 5 o'clock last evening, after the jury had deliberated since midnight, carries with it a sentence of from 2 to 21 years in state prison. Barnhill killed O'Loughlin as the result of domestic trouble.

FIND NO FIRE; ONLY SMOKE.

A telephone call was sent into headquarters at 10 o'clock Sunday morning from the residence of F. L. Stapleton, 215 East Lewis street. When the firemen arrived they found no fire, only in the furnace. Smoke had poured into the living room from the furnace and thinking that the house was on fire, the family sent in an alarm.

SEALING OUTLOOK NOT GOOD.

Catch is Very Small and Ice Floes Hamper Operations.

St. Johns, N. F., March 22.—Wireless reports received today from the sealing fleets indicate that the outlook for the season is unfavorable. The eight steamers of the eastern fleet after working their way through the ice for some 25 miles up the eastern coast of Newfoundland are now jammed in the heavy floes off Cape St. John, about 125 miles south of the entrance to the strait of Belle Isle. Five hundred seals taken by the steamer Florida last Saturday comprise the total catch to date. In the average season the eastern fleet captures about 30,000 seals by this date. The vessels of the western fleet so far have made no catch.

DIES VERY SUDDENLY.

Only Daughter of Crawford Fairbanks Expires at Terre Haute.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 22.—Mrs. Bruce F. Failey, 39 years old, only child of Crawford Fairbanks, Terre Haute's wealthiest resident, died suddenly yesterday morning at a local hospital following an operation to relieve appendicitis. Mr. Fairbanks was in New York city when advised of his daughter's death. Mrs. Failey had been ill but a short time and her condition was not considered alarming until yesterday morning.

Millie Esther Kline, 6 years old, who came to Fort Wayne Saturday with her parents and was taken suddenly ill at the traction station in the evening, is very much improved. She was taken to the St. Joseph hospital in the police ambulance.

HELD UNDER NEW POWER

Recent Congressional Resolution Applied to Case of Odenwald.

SHOT HALTED HER
DASH FROM HARBOR

Hamburg-American Liner is Detained by Uncle
Sam at San Juan.

Washington, March 22.—The Hamburg-American liner Odenwald, stopped from leaving San Juan, Porto Rico, yesterday by shells fired across her bow, is being held under the recent congressional resolution empowering the president to prevent supplies going from American ports to ships of the European belligerents at sea.

Secretary Garrison is making a thorough investigation of the Odenwald's case in connection with treasury department officials and the white house.

Under the Resolution.

Under the resolution the president was authorized "to direct collectors of customs under the jurisdiction of the United States to withhold clearance from any vessel American or foreign which has reasonable cause to believe to be about to carry fuel, arms, ammunition, men or supplies to any warship or tender, or supply ship of a belligerent nation, in violation of the obligations of the United States as a neutral nation."

It further provides that "in case any such vessel shall depart or attempt to depart from the jurisdiction of the United States without clearance for any of the purposes set forth, the owner or master or person or persons having charge or command of such vessel, shall sever all and be liable to a fine of not less than $2,000 or more than $10,000, or to imprisonment not to exceed two years, or both, and in addition such vessel shall be forfeited to the United States."

Grounds Not Disclosed.

Officials would not disclose what grounds they had for believing that the Odenwald came under the terms of the resolution.

This report was received today from Lieut. Col. Burham, commanding the Porto Rican garrison.

"Hamburg-American commercial steamer Odenwald attempted to leave port without clearance papers. At request of collector of customs to prevent

PLAYMATE IS HELD AFTER LAD'S DEATH

Clinton, Ind., March 22.—Pending a further investigation of the death of Felix Novenski, 10 years old, in Jacksonville, near here, the authorities today are holding Samuel Muscoba, a playmate.

The boys had been playing in the Novenski home Sunday alone when W. F. Adams, a merchant, heard a shot. He ran to the house to find the floor covered with blood.

He followed a trail of blood to some nearby brush where the boy's body was hidden. The Muscoba boy was found hiding in a shed. He denied firing the shot, saying his playmate had killed himself accidentally.

FORTY-FIVE CASES UP TO PARDON BOARD

Man Who Shot Up Court at Terre Haute Seeking Release Now.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22.—The Indiana state board of pardons met here today to consider forty-five applications for parole, at their regular quarterly session. Among the applications that are to be disposed of is that of Henry McDonald, who was sent to Michigan City for from two to twenty-five years in 1908, after he had shot up the court room at Terre Haute, following his conviction by a jury for having unlawfully carried dynamite. McDonald killed Wm. E. Dwyer, a detective, and wounded several other persons in the court room.

Horace Poirerfield, sentenced to prison for life for first degree murder in Posey county is asking for a pardon. He is now out on parole. Application for parole has also been made by Dr. Charles W. Paget, a physician of Greensburg, who was convicted of forgery and sentenced from two to fourteen years in the prison at Michigan City.

Albert Roubik, another life murderer, is asking for a parole. A large number of persons convicted of manslaughter are asking for their release from the state prison.

WILL USE VIEWS OF WORK IN FORT WAYNE

Anti-Tuberculosis Campaigners in Indiana Resume Crusade.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22.—While all the world is praying for peace, men and women interested in the crusade against the "white plague" in Indiana are preparing for a still more vigorous war against that deadly disease, according to an announcement made today from State Anti-Tuberculosis headquarters, 203 Public Savings Insurance building, Indianapolis. One of the most potent weapons to be used in this war will be an illustrated Indiana lecture on tuberculosis, which has been blocked out by the state society. This lecture will be sent to all parts of the state to be used in public meetings and in many instances a lecturer from the office of the society will be supplied. This lecture will include slides showing the way tuberculosis is being combated in all parts of Indiana. Views of Healthwin hospital, at South Bend, the first county tuberculosis hospital in the state, the work done at Boone farm, near Evansville, of the visiting nurse work in Fort Wayne, Logansport, South Bend, Evansville, Jeffersonville, Marion, New Albany, Terre Haute and Elkhart; of the educational work being carried on in numerous Indiana cities of free tuberculosis clinics which have recently been established in Fort Wayne, New Albany and Terre Haute; and of many other phases of the anti-tuberculosis crusade in Indiana will appear as a part of the lecture.

A number of purely educational slides, showing the value of fresh air, good food and rest, of the evils of fake consumption "cures," and a "tuberculosis primer," a series of slides specially adapted for use in schools, but, because of their direct and simple teaching, of great value to adults as well, will also be included.

Already a number of cities have made application for this lecture, which will be ready for use about the first of April. The slides will probably be used first in Elwood illustrating a talk to be delivered by Mrs. Ella B. Kehrer, of Anderson.

In preparing these slides the officers of the state society have endeavored to select views and material best suited to the general and wide use to which the lecture will be put.

EXPORTS MAY CAUSE SHORTAGE IN WHEAT

Likely to Hamper Seeding and Food Requirements in America.

Washington, March 22.—Warning that the present heavy exports to European nations of American wheat and flour cannot be continued without endangering the wheat supplies for food and seeding requirements at home was contained today in the department of agriculture's Agricultural Outlook.

In the opinion of the department's experts, exportations at the same rates as during December, January and February until the coming of the new wheat crop would encroach upon normal domestic needs.

Investigation has disclosed that there was on March 1 last apparent surplus of about 91,000,000 bushels of wheat over the domestic requirements for food and seed that was available for export in the four months from March 1 to July 1.

While the exports of wheat, including flour, during those four months last year were 36,000,000 bushels it is pointed out that those exports during December, January and February last averaged almost 25,000,000 per month and if that rate of export continued until the new crop is available it would amount to 140,000,000 bushels.

The six who were rushed to hospitals had nothing more serious than broken arms and legs. Others were less seriously hurt.

WOMEN CURB FRAUD VOTE

It Would Have Been Much Larger But for Them, Say Witnesses.

"ABOUT 19 TIMES"

More Highly Sensational
Testimony in Terre Haute Cases.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22.—Sheriff Dennis Shea instructed Walter Barrett to start an argument or anything else to get William Horsley away from the polls last election day, according to Barrett, who testified in the Terre Haute election case in federal court here today. Shea is a defendant and Horsley was the republican candidate for prosecutor.

Barrett, although he testified he voted a number of times and received money from Shea and Mayor Donn A. Roberts, another defendant, was not among the 126 indicted.

Barrett testified that he had been helping Shea in precinct C, of the Sixth ward, and Shea told him to go to precinct B, of the same ward, "and to do anything to get rid of Horsley." The witness said he went to precinct B and voted, but had no trouble with Horsley.

On cross examination he said he was released from jail in Terre Haute Jan. 27, 1915, but denied he threatened Shea that he would "squel at Indianapolis," if Shea didn't give him money to get to Chicago.

Voted "About Nineteen Times."

Lee Watkins, negro, testified he earned $45 by voting and "shooting craps with other repeaters" on election day. He voted nineteen times, he said.

"There are only a few colored men in this precinct and I'm afraid I've gone the limit," Watkins testified Shea told him when he went to precinct C, of the Sixth ward to vote.

A. O. Stanley, on cross examination, asked if Watkins had pleaded guilty. United States District Attorney Dailey stated that the man had not been indicted and Judge Anderson said: "He is one of the others to the grand jury unknown."

VACANT LOTS ARE TO BE BEAUTIFIED

Vigorous Campaign is to Be Waged by Miss Rhoda Braddock.

Through the efforts of Miss Rhoda Braddock, in charge of the garden work in the schools of the city, a vigorous campaign is to be waged in Fort Wayne this spring for the beautification of back yards and vacant lots.

Miss Braddock has called a meeting of the committee to be held at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the city hall at which time arrangements will be made to outline the plan of procedure. It is the intention of Miss Braddock to organize a number of garden clubs for boys and girls, get permission from the owners of vacant lots in the city, many of which are now unsightly, and then offer prizes to the clubs doing the best work. Pictures are to be taken of the lots before and after. Gardens are to be put out and flowers are to be planted.

The campaign is not to stop with vacant lots. An effort will be made to interest property owners in cleaning up their back yards and in a general cleaning of the city. In this work Miss Braddock has enlisted the co-operation of C. Henry, agricultural agent of Allen county, who will assist the boys and girls in planting their garden truck and in the caring for the same.

LORIMER ENTERS NOT GUILTY PLEA

Chicago, March 22.—Plea of not guilty were entered today in the federal district court by William Lorimer and three other officials of the former La Salle Street National bank to indictments charging irregularities in the management of the bank. Mr. Lorimer was indicted on a charge of having misapplied the funds of the bank.

Of the other three, Charles G. Fox and Thomas McDonald were charged with having made false entries in the books and Joseph P. Gallagher was charged with having misappropriated the funds of the bank. Charles B. Munday and H. W. Huntig, defendants in the same action, had not been served with notice and did not plead. The La Salle Street National bank, Mr. Lorimer's first venture in banking, failed last year.

FRAMING THE NOTE TO GREAT BRITAIN

Washington, March 22.—It was stated definitely at the white house today that a note to Great Britain making representations on some features of the Order in Council is being framed and will be dispatched to London in a few days. The basis of the representations was not disclosed.

Representations to Germany of reparation for the loss of the American sailing ship William P. Frye and her cargo, sunk in the South Atlantic by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, also are being prepared and will be dispatched to Berlin in two or three days.

The representations to Great Britain are expected to dwell chiefly on Great Britain's notice that she reserves the right to hold up all goods suspected of having an enemy origin or destination even though they are consigned to neutral ports.

Today's War News Given in Summary.

The siege of Przemyśl came to an end today and the Austrian defenders of the Galician fortress surrendered to the Russian forces, which have been investing it for months. The fall of Przemyśl deprives Austria of her last important fortress in Galicia, with the exception of Cracow, near the German border, which the Russians have made several unsuccessful attempts to capture.

The German war office announced that the city of Memel, on the Baltic sea, in the northern tip of East Prussia, had been retaken from the Russian forces, which captured it last week, following a battle near the city. The German announcement contains the assertion that Russians looted the city while they were in possession.

Operations in France and Belgium were of much the same character as recently. Fighting continues in northern France, near Arras; in Champagne and in the Argonne. Two spirited battles occurred yesterday in the Argonne, the French authorities claim success in each case, but here, as elsewhere along the western front, the results attained there were small.

London, March 22.—The great Galician fortress of Przemyśl, which the Austrians had so staunchly defended since the early days of the war, fell into the Russian besiegers' hands this morning.

With the strong Russian line tightly drawn around the fortress the efforts to break through were apparently hopeless and 6,000 Austrian prisoners fell into the hands of the Russians, while many more fell dead or wounded. The shattered remnants of the force fled back to the fortress and they now have fallen into the hands of the Russians.

The garrison of Przemyśl originally numbered 60,000 or 80,000 men, but sorties and shells must have cut a considerable number of thousands from that total. The besieging army is understood to number about 120,000.

Attack Cracow Next.

This force will now march on the strong Austrian fortress of Cracow, 125 miles to the east of Przemyśl, it being the announced intention of the Russian commander to reduce the ancient Polish capital as speedily as possible. As soon as the news of the fall of Przemyśl reached the headquarters of the Russian commander-in-chief, a Te Deum of thanksgiving was celebrated in the presence of Emperor Nicholas and Grand Duke Nicholas and all their staffs.

GERMANS RECAPTURE MEMEL.

Drive Russian Invaders From Prussian City After Sharp Fight.

Berlin, March 22.—An official statement given out today by the German army headquarters says:

"A fresh attempt to take the German position on the south slope of the Lorette heights was made last night, but resulted in failure. Another French night attack north of Lemsnif in the Champagne district also was without success. Furthermore all the French efforts to win back the position at Reichsforst resulted in failure.

"The Russians yesterday were driven from Memel, on the Baltic sea in East Prussia, after a short engagement to the south of the town followed by tenacious fighting in the streets. Under the protection of Russian troops, a Russian mob looted the private property of German citizens in Memel. Carloads of goods were conveyed across the frontier. A special report on this looting will be published.

"North of Marienopol Russian attacks have been repulsed with heavy Russian losses. West of the Ozyre river, near Jadronek, to the northwest of Przasnysz, and to the northwest of Cieszanow, Russian attacks by night and by day have broken down under the German fire. Russian prisoners to the number of 420 were captured.

SIEGE LONG AND VIOLENT.

Austrian Defense of Przemyśl a Striking Feature of War.

Petrograd, March 22.—It was announced officially this morning that the Galician fortress of Przemyśl surrendered to the Russians today.

The siege of Przemyśl, an Austrian stronghold in the province of Galicia, has been under way since the early days of the war. It has been a bitter and relentless siege, which has never been relaxed for a moment since the Russians invested the city. Several attempts of the Austrians to raise the siege, the last of which was made only a short time ago have failed.

With the fall of Przemyśl the only important fortified town in Galicia which is still in the hands of the Austrians is Cracow in northwest Galicia close to the German border.

In the early days of the war the Russian offensive campaign as outlined, contemplated the invasion of Germany

SENTENCED TO DIE IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

Indianapolis, March 22.—Tom Dorak, a Hungarian, found guilty of the murder of George Wise, another foreigner, in the criminal court here last week, was sentenced to pay the death penalty in the electric chair at the Michigan City prison before sunrise July 9.

Before sentence was pronounced Dorak said that he had nothing to say other than that the witness had not told the truth. Dorak's attorneys filed a motion for a new trial.

SPRING IS GIVEN A COLD RECEPTION

According to those who know spring made her debut in 1915 society at precisely 10:51 a. m. Sunday morning. At that hour, it is claimed, the sun passed the equator. Experts declare that the arrival of spring can be figured down to the fractional part of a second. The fair daisies were given a most cool reception in Fort Wayne. Throughout the entire day considerable snow has fallen and, according to Forecaster W. S. Palmer, light snow may be expected Tuesday with not very much change in the temperature.

Gray Would Shoulder All Blame on Germany

London, March 22.—"War might have been avoided by a European conference when and where Germany desired," Foreign Secretary Sir Edward Gray told an audience in London this afternoon. At the time he was acting as chairman of a gathering which was listening to a lecture on the strategy of the war. Continuing along this line the foreign secretary said:

"Germany, from her experience in the Balkan conference, knew she could count on our good will and that we were ready to do last July what we did before. But Germany refused every suggestion and on her rests for all time the appalling responsibility for the war. We now know that Germany had prepared for war, and those who have planned for war only can prepare for it."

Amid loud cheers Sir Edward added: "This is the fourth time within living memory that Prussia has made war upon Europe and we are determined it shall be the last."

"The expenditure of hundreds of millions of money and the loss of millions of lives might have been avoided by a conference of the European powers held in London or at The Hague or wherever and in whatever form Germany would have consented to hold it. It would have been far easier to have settled the dispute between Austria-Hungary and Serbia, which Germany made the occasion for the war, than it was to get successfully through the Balkan crisis of two years ago."

"In recent years," the foreign secretary went on to say, "we have given Germany every assurance that any aggressive movement upon her would receive no support from us. We withheld from her only one thing—the unconditional promise to stand aside. However aggressive Germany herself might be to her neighbors,

DOESN'T INTEND TO CALL EXTRA SESSION

Washington, March 22.—Formal announcement was made at the white house today that at present President Wilson has no intention of calling an extra session of the senate or of congress before the beginning of the regular session next December. It was said the president sees no prospect of any contingency arising which would cause him to alter his present intention.

Several senators had suggested that the president call a special session of the senate in October to consider ratification of the Columbian and Nicaraguan treaties. Other suggestions were that an extra session of congress be called during the summer to take up the question of giving the president authority to declare an embargo on the exportation of munitions of war and food stuffs to the belligerent nations of Europe. It was announced today that the president would not carry out either suggestion.

AIRMEN HIT BOTH CALAIS AND PARIS

Calais, March 22.—The third Zeppelin attack upon this city, timed at almost the precise hour that the aerial raid was made upon Paris early Sunday morning, was made ineffective because the whirling of the airships' motors gave warning of their approach. The Zeppelins came from the direction of the east, but bombardment from French artillery caused them to retreat before they reached the city. It is supposed here that they intended making another attempt of dropping bombs in the harbor and railroad junction.

ONE DEATH IS RESULT.

Zeppelin Bombs Dropped on Paris Early Sunday Morning.

Paris, March 22.—(5:05 a. m.)—While no one was killed directly by the Zeppelin bombs, which were dropped in Paris and its environs early yesterday, they resulted in one death—that of Mme. Charles Person, who lived in the Rue des Dames. The aged woman was so frightened by the explosion of a bomb in that street that she died soon afterward.

After Public Prosecutor Lescourge and his staff had visited all the places where bombs exploded and examined several witnesses he drew up a report to which will be annexed reports made of previous airship raids upon the city. A city analyst, who spent the day collecting bombs which did not explode and fragments of those which did, took them to his laboratory for a chemical analysis. From a cursory examination he found that most of the missiles dropped were incendiary, containing a mixture of phosphorus, tar and benzine, provided with a light contrivance consisting of a wick soaked in petroleum.

The Zeppelins yesterday dropped a dozen bombs, but the damage done was unimportant. Seven or eight persons were injured, but only one seriously. Four of the air crafts started for the capital, following the valley of the Oise, but only two reached their goal. Missiles also were dropped at Compiègne, Ribecourt and Dreux, but without serious result.

Paris remained calm while the aerial invasion was in progress and residents of the city exhibited more curiosity than fear as to the result. Trumpets gave the signal that all lights must be extinguished as soon as a warning was received of the Zeppelins' approach. Searchlights were turned upon the clouds, anti-aircraft guns opened fire and aeroplanes rose to attack the Germans, but their operations were hampered by a heavy mist.

ATTACK MOST FURIOUS ONE

Fighting in Dardanelles is Described by Eye-Witness.

WHEN THE FRENCH BATTLESHIP SANK

Forts and Fleet Exchange
 Terrific Fire Lasting
 Several Hours.

Berlin, March 22.—The correspondent at Constantinople of the Wolff bureau telegraphed today a description of the fighting at the Dardanelles on Thursday, March 18, in which the French battleship Bouvet and two British battleships were sent to the bottom. Here follows an abridgment of the correspondent's story of this engagement:

The efforts of the allies to force the straits of the Dardanelles reached their climax in an artillery duel on Thursday, March 18, which lasted seven hours. The entire atmosphere around the Turkish forts was darkened by clouds of smoke from exploding shells and quantities of earth thrown into the air by the projectiles of the French and British warships. The earth trembled for miles around.

The allies entered the straits at half-past 11 in the morning and shelled the town of Chank Kikale. Four French and five British warships took part in the beginning. This engagement reached its climax at half-past 1, when the fire of the allies was concentrated upon Fort Maudieh and the adjacent fortified positions.

Spectacle Is Terrifying.

The attack of modern marine artillery upon strong land forts presented an interesting as well as terrifying spectacle. At times the forts were completely enveloped in smoke. At 2 o'clock the allies changed their tactics and concentrated their fire upon individual batteries, but it was evident that they found difficulty in getting the range. Many of their shells fell short, casting up pillars of water, or went over the forts to explode in the town. At a quarter past 2, when the bombardment was at its hottest, the French battleship Bouvet was seen to be sinking at the stern. A moment later her bows swung clear of the water and she was going down.

Roaring cheers from the Turkish garrisons and forts greeted this sight. Torpedo boats and other craft of the allies hurried to the rescue but they were successful in saving only a few men.

Besides having been struck by a mine the Bouvet was severely damaged above the water line by shell fire. One projectile struck her forward deck. A mast also was shot away and hung overboard. It could be seen that the Bouvet when she sank was endeavoring to gain the mouth of the straits.

This, however, was difficult, owing apparently to the fact that her machinery had been damaged.

British Ship Damaged.

Shortly after the sinking of the Bouvet a British ship was struck on the deck squarely amidships and compelled to withdraw from the fight. Then another British vessel was badly damaged, and at a quarter before four was seen to retire under a terrific fire from the Turkish batteries. This vessel ran in toward the shore. For a full hour the allies tried to protect her with their guns, but it was apparent that she was destined for destruction. Eight effective hits showed the hopelessness of the situation for this vessel. She then withdrew toward the mouth of the Dardanelles, which she reached in a few minutes under a hail of shells. The forts continued firing until the allies were out of range.

This was the first day when the warships attacking the Dardanelles kept within range of the Turkish guns for any considerable length of time. The result for them was terrible, owing to the excellent marksmanship from the Turkish batteries. The allies fired on this day 2,000 shells without silencing one shore battery. The result has inspired the Turks with confidence and they are looking forward to further engagements with calm assurance.

PEACE LECTURER IN THREE ADDRESSES

Dr. Hill and Dr. King Speak
 in Fort Wayne Churches
 Sunday.

Two speakers of national reputation spoke in the churches of Fort Wayne Sunday, Dr. John Westey Hill, of New York, president of the Peace Forum, on the subject of "Peace," and Dr. Harry King, president of Moore's Hill college, on religious subjects.

Dr. Hill spoke in the morning at the First Methodist church, in the afternoon at the Wayne street M. E. church and in the evening at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. King spoke at the Simpson M. E. church in the morning and at the Wayne street M. E. church in the evening.

In his address on "Peace," Dr. Hill, among other things, said: "The daily cost of the war in Europe is fifty millions. If the war continues for a single year, this already enormous debt will be increased over eighteen billion, making their combined national debt forty-two billion. Now note this important fact: There are but eleven billions of gold and bullion in the whole world, of which four billion are held by all Europe. With this condition, when these nations come to settle their war accounts, they will find themselves shuddering on the verge of bankruptcy, and when, a little later, emperors and kings, military aristocracies of war begin to demand further loans for the enlistment and training of new larger armies and the restoration, enlargement and improvement of their shattered armaments, the finance keepers of the world will say, 'It is impossible! We cannot suffer you longer to starve legitimate industry, cripple commerce, arrest the progress of education and religion, to build deadly machines for human slaughter, to lay waste our lands, impoverish our people, decivilize our civilization and turn the world backward toward barbarism. This folly must stop!'"

Dr. Hill declared it would be foolish and suicidal for this country to interfere in the present struggle.

"The duty devolving upon us is to lead the way in the creation, not only at home, but throughout the world, of a sentiment for the establishment among the nations of a supreme court of judicial settlement."

SHOT FROM DOLPHIN
HALTS SANTA CLARA

Mistake in Interpretation of
 Signals Causes Dispatch
 Boat to Fire.

New York, March 22.—The American steamer Santa Clara, outward bound, was stopped today by a shot fired across her bows in the lower harbor by the dispatch boat Dolphin, stationed there to watch outgoing steamers and preserve American neutrality at this port. A mistake in the interpretation of signals and the failure of the Santa Clara to stop brought the Dolphins guns to bear upon her. She was promptly released and proceeded.

The Santa Clara cleared Saturday for Havana. As she was passing quarantine today she displayed signal letters spelling out her name. The Dolphin's look-out apparently thought she had hoisted the wrong letters and a shot was fired to halt her.

As soon as the Santa Clara stopped, a navy tug ran alongside and after a few moments' conversation with the steamer's captain she was permitted to continue on her way.

FOUR AMERICANS MEET DEATH IN SEA

Commander Bricker, of the Scorpion, and Sailors,
 Are Drowned.

Constantinople (via Berlin and London), March 22.—(10:45 a. m.)—Lieut. Com. William F. Bricker, of the United States Scorpion, and three sailors named Ford, Dowell and Levering, were drowned on the night of March 20 while attempting to reach the vessel with a rowboat. The Scorpion was anchored in the Bosphorus off Constantinople near the Dolmabahce palace.

The rowboat was swamped in a heavy sea thrown up by a south gale. Lieut. Herbert S. Babitt and one sailor, who were in the boat, were saved.

Lieutenant Commander Bricker arrived at Constantinople only on March 18 to succeed Lieutenant Commander Edward McCauley, jr., in command of the Scorpion.

The Scorpion is a converted yacht purchased for the navy in 1896. It has a displacement of 860 tons and has been stationed at Constantinople for some time. Lieutenant Commander Bricker, who formerly was naval attaché at the American embassy at Paris, left that city on February 23 for Constantinople to assume command of the Scorpion. He was born January 18, 1879, and was appointed to the naval academy on September 19, 1896.

REGRET AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, March 22.—Great regret was expressed by naval officers over the death of Lieutenant Commander Bricker, who was well known here. Seaman Irvin Dowell was from Annapolis, Md., where his mother, Mrs. Hattie Dowell, lives. Charley Ford's home was in Oxford, Miss. Naval records here show no sailor named Levering. No official advice on the accident had been received by the navy department early today.

BADLY TANGLED ON AMERICAN HOLIDAYS

Brussels Thought Feb. 14 U. S. Fete Day and Held Celebration.

Brussels, Feb. 23.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—No foreign holiday has ever been celebrated so fervently in Belgium as was Washington's birthday, but in the city of Brussels St. Valentine almost usurped the honor which the Belgians wished to pay to the memory of America's first president. Someone started the story that St. Valentine's day was the national fete day of the United States and consequently on the 14th thousands of citizens wore small American flags and letters of good wishes poured into the American legation.

The province of Liege made no mistake in the matter and the city council of Liege ordered that Washington's birthday should be celebrated with formal exercises in the schools which were also granted a vacation on the 23d. The following circular was therefore sent to the headmasters of the various schools: "The United States of America have of late shown deep interest in the welfare of Belgium. By revivifying the population which has suffered so much from the war, America has rendered an immense service to our country. The 22d of February is a national holiday in the United States. I desire that on this day the pupils of all professional schools for girls and of all grammar schools partake in the celebration and that on this occasion the importance of the services rendered by the American republic to the Motherland and the noble example set by this act of international solidarity be clearly illuminated. I leave it to your judgment to arrange the details of the manifestation."

TWO WILL SERVE GERMANY.

Newport News, Va., March 22.—Charles Frank and Roger Rogge, former members of the crew of the American sailing ship, William P. Frye, sunk in the South Atlantic by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, and who were said to be held on the cruiser against their will, for military service, made a deposition yesterday, denying that they were being held forcibly. The men appeared at the customs house in the uniform of the German navy and said they regarded themselves as refugees from a sinking ship, subject to military service under the German flag, which they were willing to perform. Rogge holds a master's certificate in the German merchant marine. Frank is signed as an able seaman.

HIDES STOLEN GEMS IN EMPTY DWELLING

Robert Kelly Steals Three Diamond Rings and Confesses.

After stealing three diamond rings of a total value of about $250 from Mrs. William Clemens, 303 West Main street, and hiding them in the attic of an unoccupied dwelling on Barr street, Robert Kelly, aged 25, went through a hard process of sweating under Detective Sergeant William F. Pappert, Monday afternoon, before he finally confessed the robbery and took the officer to the place where he had secreted his loot.

Kelly is employed as a waiter in a downtown cafe and rooms in the house at 303 West Main street. Mr. and Mrs. William Clemens, of Dayton, Ohio, took rooms there Sunday. After completing her toilet in the lavatory of the house, Monday morning, Mrs. Clemens got to take her diamond rings which she had laid aside on the washbowl. Later she missed them and reported to the police.

Detective Pappert learned that Kelly roomed in the house and went after him. Kelly strenuously denied the theft for a long time, but finally came across and took Detective Pappert to a vacant house at 907 Barr street and drew the rings from their hiding place. They were restored to Mrs. Clemens by Detective Pappert Monday afternoon.

Kelly came to Fort Wayne from Chicago about a week ago. He is held on a grand larceny charge.

Kelly said he had never seen the Barr street place until he went there to hide his plunder.

A note addressed to the coroner read: "It is usual in cases like this to render a verdict of suicide while insane. Your verdict, to accord with the facts in this case, should be suicide with perfectly sound mind and body." Mrs. Dutton formerly lived in Cheyenne, Wyo.

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. C. Kinley, of Francis street, Saturday afternoon by a party of friends of the neighborhood and other parts of the city. They all arrived at once and rushed into the house apparently much excited and announced that they knew it was the hostess' birthday anniversary. Mrs. Kinley acknowledged the fact and gave her friends a most cordial greeting. The guests were prepared with well filled baskets so later in the day an elegant luncheon was spread, with a large birthday cake with candles lighted on it as the wind-up to the repast. The ladies participating were Mesdames Hollenbacher, Hilger, Wehrenberg, Krudop, Gallmeier, Schulz and Luderhann.

C. W. Noll was the victim of a pleasant surprise party which Mrs. Noll arranged for yesterday afternoon and evening. At the right hour a merry company of friends called at 1512 High street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noll. The day was the natal anniversary of Mr. Noll and that was the occasion for the party. Music both vocal and instrumental was enjoyed as well as a supper that had been well prepared and was tempting to see. There were present Mesdames and Mesdames Jim Wolf and son Carl, Will Weaver, H. Lowin, J. Steel and son Vincent, H. VanOndale and son Ralph, of St. Joe township; Mrs. I. N. Myers, of Maple, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper, of Eden, O.

DIANA DILLPICKLES IN

HER BEAU WITH MUCH TO LEARN

A 4-Reel "Screecher" Film

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Luke 20:1-14.

1 And it came to pass, that on one of those days as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,
 2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?
 3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:
 4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?
 5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believest thou him not?
 6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they believe that John was a prophet.
 7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.
 8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.
 9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable: A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.
 10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.
 11 And again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, and sent him away shamefully, and sent him away empty.
 12 And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also, and sent him away.
 13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.
 14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

Getting an Early Start.

The average Indiana citizen who revels in an occasional respite from politics and entertains the idea that he is entitled to a breathing spell between campaigns is plainly doomed to disappointment this year. There isn't going to be any rest. Both the republicans and the democrats—and particularly the former—have begun to get up party steam for 1916 in a fashion that indicates an inherent belief in the value of an early start. Nor is the activity confined to mere curb gossip. The organizations have begun to hold get-together meetings over the state, as witness this week's instance in Fort Wayne, to line up the forces for next year's clash.

There is no lack of prospective timber for the places from president down. Republicans are talking of C. W. Fairbanks and James E. Watson for the presidency; for Harry New and for Judge Walter Olds for senator; for James P. Goodrich, James E. Watson, Hugh Th. Miller, Quincy A. Myers, John McArdle, Charles A. Bookwalter, William L. Taylor, Senator W. M. White, of Crawfordsville, and a number of others for governor, not to mention the minor places on the ticket.

On the democratic side of the situation, there is little likelihood that serious opposition will develop to the re-nomination of Senator Kern, and he will undoubtedly be democracy's choice for return to the senate. For the gubernatorial nomination the two men at present most strongly in the limelight are Representative J. A. M. Adair and William H. O'Brien, but there are certain to be additional entries in the race.

Enough is doing at this early date to make it evident that the political pot in Indiana is due for a protracted siege of seething that will not abate until after the election a year from next November. We might as well accept the situation and look as pleasant as possible in the meantime.

Despite denials issued from Washington at the time he sailed for Europe, there is increasing evidence to indicate that Colonel E. M. House, of Texas and New York, close friend of President Wilson, is in Europe in an effort to bring about peace between the warring nations. It is declared that Colonel House has already reported to Wilson the demands of England and France, and that the purpose of his presence in Berlin is to seek a statement of the terms on which Germany would be willing to embark in peace negotiations. Very naturally it is necessary to surround negotiations of this character with all the secrecy possible, but that the president is diligently though quietly using his friendly offices in an effort to end the war on a basis satisfactory to all the belligerents, is scarcely to be doubted. It will be the profound hope of the rest of the world—and, possibly, of the belligerents themselves, that his success may not be long deferred.

Representative John R. Jones, of Plymouth, the man who led the successful fight for the state-wide primary law in Indiana, has now enlisted with the force of the Citizens' League of Indiana in the campaign for a new constitution. Nothing succeeds like success, and it is to be hoped that Mr. Jones will be as successful in convincing the people of the need for the new constitution as he was in forcing the state-wide primary law to enactment. It will be a service of much more general value to the state than even his primary law providing for popular nominations.

Friends of Major G. Will Wilson say he will be a candidate for delegate to the republican national convention next year with Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, as his first choice for the presidential nomination. Just to keep the record clear in the event Mr. Herrick comes through at the psychological moment, it might be observed that Major Wilson has securely nailed down and safely tucked away pretty early claims to priority as the "original Herrick man" in the Twelfth congressional district. Others would do well to take due notice.

At least you cannot longer blame it on the groundhog. His six weeks' rulership over the weather expired some time ago.

PARTY PLEDGES.

(Toledo Blade.)

The republicans of the Pennsylvania senate had been nominated before the adoption of their party platform. That they were bound by the platform was denied by one of the republicans when the woman suffrage amendment was before the senate last Monday. The platform, he argued, was a thing apart from the selection of candidates. It carried no command to them. If it was worth anything at all, it was only as advice.

The chairman of the republican state committee, himself a senator, recited that two years ago he had opposed this same amendment "with all the force that he could muster." Later, it became a plank in his party platform. His party was committed to submit the amendment to a vote of the people. "On that platform," he said, "the state candidates and many legislators were elected and they were obligated to carry out its mandates. It is a question to-day whether a party platform, deliberately made, shall be faithfully kept."

The senate took that view of its duties. It gave the amendment a majority of twenty-six votes. In the house of representatives it had already received a majority of sixty votes.

The decision is of interest not only in showing the increasing strength of the women suffrage movement, but also because it shows an increase in the power of party platforms to hold office-holders to their pledges.

HELPING BUSINESS READJUST.

(Grand Rapids Press.)

The new trade commission does well to announce that its motto will be "constructive helpfulness." The members realize that business is a delicate matter dependent entirely upon credit and confidence and they do not propose to add to the general feeling of uncertainty which new legislation began and the war continued.

Instead of harassing business by using drastically their broad powers of supervision, the commission proposes to inject itself into the commercial structure of the country by short and constructive steps.

MY TIRED FEET

ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "TIZ."

"Just couldn't wait to take my hat off!"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, blisters-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." Its grand, its glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions. There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire. Adv.

servative steps. It will take for granted the desire of 90 per cent. of business men to conduct their enterprises in accord with the law of the land. Such infractions as appear will be considered due to ignorance of the law rather than deliberate evasions or deceptions. In this way the commission hopes to stabilize business by showing entrepreneurs how to conduct themselves without running afoul of the anti-trust laws and so reduce to a minimum legal actions which always tend to debilitate the nervous system of industry.

It is a wise decision and in accord with the spirit of the day. The conservative spirit is abroad in the land. The current disposition in legislative and government circles is to allow business to adjust itself to the new conditions written into law at public behest during the last ten years. If the trade commission succeeds in adjusting big business to the law it will do much to bridge one of the dangerous gulfs confronting the American people. The modern system of big business has recently been described by an acute observer as turning out the wrong kind of citizens, but the latter take their revenge in striving with thorns the highway of industry. Democracy faces a supreme task in harmonizing business and politics and it is encouraging to find the trade commission approaching the grave responsibility with caution and conservatism.

The schedule provides for the opening games April 27 and for every Sunday until October 5, when the city league season will close. The Crescents, the Kaisers, the Brunsvicks and the Sports are the teams in the league.

Dr. George T. Brubach, who died yesterday, was one of the most prominent medical practitioners of Indiana. RICE IS ENGAGED FOR EXPOSITION

Noted Tenor in Ft. Wayne Tonight to Sing at San Francisco.

Leon Rice, the tenor who gives his recital of "An Evening of Song" at Wayne Street M. E. church this evening, has received a very remarkable contract from the directors of the big fair now in progress in California.

Singing with the Shriners' band of 120 pieces on a tour of California last season the Sacramento Star says: "An audience of about 4,000 people applauded this noted tenor to the echo in the agricultural pavilion, forcing him to respond to double and triple encores after each number."

So great was Mr. Rice's success in the far west last year that the directors of the Panama-California exposition have engaged him for several appearances on important state days, and he is now on his way towards there.

Mr. Rice's appearance here is one which should be fully appreciated by the people of Fort Wayne, especially as it will be possible for everyone to hear him. In order to secure a capacity house no admission will be charged. A silver offering will be taken. Mr. Rice comes to us fresh from the most successful recital he has ever given in practically every important city west from New York city that he left a little over two months ago.

There is no doubt but that the auditorium of the church will be packed to its capacity, and it is suggested that all who desire seats should be on hand promptly before 8:15 o'clock, when the recital is scheduled to start.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed with Sulphur It Brings Back Its Lustre and Abundance.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look Young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

AT THE EMPRESS. Jew comedians may come and Jew comedians may go, but Harry Welsh slides on forever. Through two funny musical comedies that go to make the "Monte Carlo Girls" attraction at the Empress theater this week, this funny little fellow slid around the stage, and in so doing, slid his way into the heart of the big opening crowd, and may be expected to do the same thing for the remainder of his stay in Fort Wayne. The bill opens with the laughable musical farce "Izzy the Detective," and closes with a jumble of nonsense entitled "A Day in Paris." Two special attractions go with this good burlesque bill in a tiny little physical wonder, Ora Ental, who winds up the bill with a whirlwind dance, and the Big Four quartet, four singers of more than ordinary ability.

AT THE JEFFERSON. "THE GOVERNOR'S LADY." Edith Wynne Mathison, a Brilliant Success, at Jefferson.

"The Governor's Lady," in which Edith Wynne Mathison makes her screen debut at the Jefferson, is a picture of the famous play of the same name by Alice Bradley, which was first presented in New York at the Belasco theater. The story concerns the life experiences of the wife of an ambitious man, who after he obtains wealth and power, feels that the wife of his youth and poverty is not able to keep pace with him. In the end, however, he finds that she is superior in real qualities of heart and soul to all the other women of his new world and surroundings.

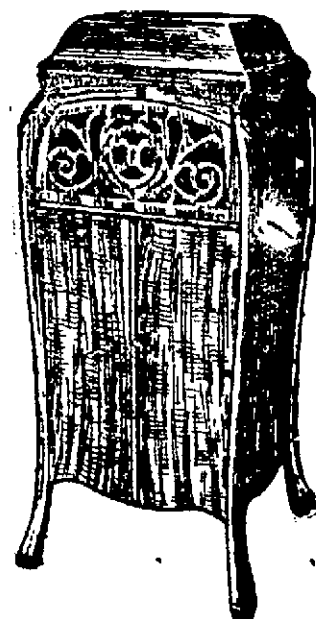

Five of the greatest stars of the famous Laithy organization are cast with Miss Mathison in "The Governor's Lady," and she is given dramatic support of a kind that brooks no criticism. James Neil, the well known actor of the legitimate stage, plays opposite to Miss Mathison. The other three leading artists are Theodore Roberts, Tom Forman and May Allison.

AT THE COLONIAL. Warwick in "Alias Jimmy Valentine." Robert Warwick, the well known star of the screen and the legitimate stage, assisted by a cast of extraordinary brilliance, make an impressive hit at the Colonial theater in a wonderful film version of Paul Armstrong's dramatic success, "Alias Jimmy Valentine." Warwick's previous triumphs in "The Dollar Mark" and "The Man of the Hour" were played with distinction and earnestness, but his creation of the title role in this powerfully moving drama is unquestionably the greatest piece of acting he has ever done. Played Role of Christ in the Passion Play; Now Goes to War

Anton Lang Leaves Oberammergau to Fight for the Fatherland Against Allies Foes in France.

Oberammergau, Bavaria, March 22.—Anton Lang, who gained world fame by playing the role of Christ in the last two performances of the Passion Play, has hurried away to the front to kill and maim his fellow men in the name of war.

He has started from his home in this village to join a new corps of troops equipped with skis which the Germans have formed to fight the French Chasseurs Alpins in the Vosges.

Behind him he has left his wife and three children and a host of the villagers, the majority of whom have appeared in the Passion play—torn by conflicting emotions.

They are intensely patriotic and to them the fatherland means everything—and yet they are shocked.

It is almost inconceivable to them that Anton Lang, the man who played the role of the Christ, with such feeling and spiritualness, as perhaps no other person had, should now take up a gun and seek to slay his fellowmen—even in defense of the fatherland.

For Lang as a boy was more quiet than the other lads he played with in the streets of the narrow village and as he grew older was noted for the sensitive, almost saintly, cast of his features.

His father, who played the role of Herod, had prepared for fifty-three years in hopes of playing the role of the Christ. But when the ballots were cast choosing the actors for the 1900 play the son and not the father was chosen for the coveted role. Anton was then only twenty-five years old.

This performance of the Passion Play attracted a greater number of visitors than ever had visited the village previously and Lang for his remarkable performance of the difficult role was heralded the world over. In 1910 he was re-elected to play the part.

Nevertheless, he continued on in his quiet, unassuming way, working as a potter, the trade he had learned from his father.

Anton Lang, at work in his pottery shop, and showing his portrayal of the Christ in the Passion play.

Visitors who flocked to his shop to stare and speak with him always embarrassed him.

An incident which occurred one afternoon serves to show his objection to the "limelight."

A party of two or three was in his shop buying pottery. As he stood at his counter showing his wares a group of four or five spectators gathered at the window and began to stare in.

Lang seemed to be more or less troubled for a few moments and then quietly asked one of his customers if he would object to his drawing the shade, saying, "I do not like for people to stare at me."

COLLEGE MEN FIND A MAMMOTH CAVE

Williams Students Equipped With Ropes Make Descent Into Great Hole.

Springfield, Mass., March 22.—Students of Williams college, under the auspices of the Good Government club, have been much interested and busily engaged for some time past in the exploring of a series of caves or underground caverns, which have been known to exist for years in the mountains to the west of the town, known as the Petersburg range, says the Union.

Some time ago a party of students found some caves in the range which had not before been visited, and during vacation these students took advantage of the opportunity to make a systematic investigation of these caves. There were eleven students in the party and the most important result of their exploration was the discovery that one of the caves extends probably 1,000 feet down into the earth and is presumably connected with a labyrinth of other subterranean passages.

Equipped with ropes, flashlights, lamps, hatchets, and so forth, a party composed of Donald Winston '13, president of the Good Government club, Samuel C. McKown '10, chairman of the club, and by-ways committee of the club; Harold M. Adams '15, William R. August '15, Elbert B. Bancker '15, Irving M. Day '16, Charles D. Kepner '16, Meredith Wood '10, and Philip O. Longyear '18, left Williams town bent on a thorough exploration trip. At Tri-State corners two more members, Frederick V. Geier '16 and Gilbert A. C. McCurdy '17, were added to the party.

On reaching the cave on the mountain a party of six went down. After going about eighty feet the cave narrowed and the party came back. Winston and McKown then went back with five others and found another passage and went down a long distance. Finally Winston and McKown crawled through a small hole and found they could go forward much farther. They came to the end of their journey, when the rays of their lamps revealed a yawning downward descent of the cave, shooting down at almost right angles. Turning their lamps over the edge, they could only see a winding, twisting, descent, seeming to extend down indefinitely. When a rock was cast over the brink it went tumbling and crashing from side to side down, but did not appear to stop. The sound grew fainter and fainter, until only a dull echo could be heard. The two undergraduates then turned around and made their way back. How many hundreds of feet the cave extended onward and downward could not be ascertained.

MERCHANTS UNITE IN BODY TO HELP CITY

New Chamber of Commerce is Formed at Portland, Maine!

Portland, Me., March 22.—The citizens' organization committee, composed of fifty men of Portland, with the assistance of W. B. Moore, civic organizer, has just completed one of the biggest and most successful three days' chamber of commerce campaigns ever witnessed in New England. Formal organization of the chamber will take place soon.

The membership campaign opened Tuesday morning, March 2, at 9 o'clock, and closed Thursday noon, March 4. The "Minute Men," comprising the membership solicitors, numbered 108, and they worked from 9 o'clock until noon each day.

It was the aim of the committee to secure 1,000 memberships and $20,000 annual income; when the work closed 1,101 members and an annual income of $20,410 had been secured for a period of three years. Members are continuing to affiliate, unsolicited, and there are now more than 1,150 members, with the annual income close to $23,000.

The movement has gripped Portland strongly. Maine's largest city, with its 65,000 people, has learned what co-operation and service on the part of her citizens can accomplish. Portland citizens have awakened more than ever to the city's natural advantages.

With the organization of the chamber of commerce there ceases to exist an institution old in point of service—the Portland Board of Trade. This trade body, chartered in 1853, has seen sixty-one years of activity and accomplished much with the facilities afforded.

The board of trade merged into the new chamber of commerce to form the nucleus of the new and much larger body. Several other trade bodies, equally strong in their respective lines, have affiliated with the new civic and centralized force, made up of all classes of people of Portland.

BRINGING IN BAD INDIANS.

Gen. Scott's Mission Among Unruly Putes Successful.

Washington, March 22.—A laconic telegram came to the war department yesterday from Brigadier General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, at Bluff, Utah, announcing that the general was bringing in the four Pute Indians who recently led a band of their tribesmen on the warpath when the federal authorities attempted to arrest Tse-ne-Gat for murder. The message, addressed to Secretary Garrison, said:

"Successful. Have four Putes desired by Marshal Nebecker and am, at their desire, personally conducting them to Salt Lake to turn over to Marshal Nebecker. Am leaving everything peaceable behind us in southern Utah. Should reach Thompson Tuesday and Salt Lake Wednesday."

CUBS ARE MARKS FOR LEFT HANDERS' SKILL

Five Regulars on Team Who Hit from the Port Side.

Tampa, Fla., March 22.—National league managers will have an opportunity to make good use of their left-handed pitchers this season against the Cub team, if Manager Bresnahan doesn't make a change in his lineup. He has five left-handed batters in the arrangement and six when a southpaw twirler is in the game. The only consequence of this can be that his club will be "soft picking" for the effective portenders in the league.

Bresnahan does not think it good policy to have more than three left-handed batters in the lineup, but circumstances are such that he finds it necessary to have five at present, and there is not much prospect for a change unless he succeeds in making a trade for a right-handed outfielder.

That his club will be an easy victim for a southpaw was shown in a recent exhibition game with the Athletics, which the Cubs won 6 to 2, when Brewster twirled the first three innings and held them without a hit or anything that even resembled a swat. Brewster did not seem to have a whole lot of anything either, but despite that he had no difficulty in getting rid of the left-handed hitters. As soon as the portender retired from the game and Reed and Wyckoff right-handers, appeared upon the scene, the Cubs began to hit and it was off them they accumulated eight hits for six runs.

The fact that Manager Bresnahan is carrying five left-handed batters in his regular squad will not be overlooked by the opposing seven managers in the National league and undoubtedly they will find a way to give his men all the left-handed pitchers they can find.

Safer and Schulte do not have much difficulty in getting hits off southpaws, but at the same time they are not fattening their averages. Good and Williams are weak against them, and McLarry is said not to like them. Impair the batting of these three players and the Cubs have little strength left.

It is not probable, however, Manager Bresnahan will retain the lineup he is using in the exhibition games, but it is almost safe to say he will start the race with it unless he manages to make a deal or two. He has no players on his club capable of supplanting any of the players he has on his first team. He cannot take any more for a trial since the league has put the limit down to twenty-one players.

The Funniest Play I Ever Saw in Baseball.

(By Jim Sheppard, one of the Greatest Outfielders of the Game.)

The funniest thing I ever recall was an alibi Helne Zimmerman tried to establish once. It was late in 1908 and we, the Cubs, were fighting the New York Giants hard for the pennant. The final series in Chicago between the two clubs seemed to decide it and McGraw had sent Mathewson to stop us. He had us stopped, all but Tinker.

The score was 0 to 0 in the fifth inning. I think when Tinker drove the ball a mile to left center.

Joe had his cap off in his hand and was circling those bases as fast as he ever ran in his life. Helne was coaching at third base. As Tinker started around the bag the ball still was down in the corner. Joe could have walked home but Helne dived out of the coaches' box, tackled him and almost threw him back to the bag. Tinker glanced again, saw the ball start in and fighting Helne he broke away and started home again, scoring easily.

Chance was crazy. He called Helne everything but we won the game 1 to 0.

"The sun was in my eyes—and I thought the ball was on the infield," said Helne.

Chance spluttered a minute and said:

"That's the first time I ever heard of the sun shining from the northeast at half past four o'clock in the afternoon."

JACK JOHNSON IS TOO FAT—HERE'S FIRST PICTURE FROM HAVANA HEADQUARTERS

Take a look at the principal figure in this photograph, fans. He weighs 248 pounds and that's ten pounds less than he did on arriving at Havana. The experts there seem to agree that Jack Johnson cannot get himself down to good fighting weight before the battle with Jess Willard on April 4. Johnson can do his best work at 230, but if he gets off eighteen pounds between now and the fight he will be reducing too fast, the experts think, to be strong. This picture was taken as Johnson was doing road work with a trainer outside Havana.

SOUTH BEND WILL HAVE NO BASEBALL

South Bend, Ind., March 22.—This city will not have a team in the Southern Michigan baseball league this year, according to a statement made last night by Ed Smith, manager of the local club. Smith's efforts to retain the ball park here have failed, he said, and as a consequence he will transfer the South Bend club to Muskegon, Mich., the city which has been seeking a berth in the Southern Michigan league for the last few weeks.

ZANESVILLE WILL PLAY OTTAWA FIVE

The fast Zanesville basketball team will play the clever Ottawa Germans next Friday night at the St. Paul auditorium. This game was to have been played on Thursday night but was postponed one night by Manager Weaver on account of the Lyceum-Prior contest for the city championship, which is to be played at Concordia gymnasium. Much interest is being taken in the Zanesville-Ottawa match, which promises to be one of the best of the season. Both the Prior and Lyceum teams are practicing hard for the contest on Thursday evening.

FULLERTON CAN SEE NO CHANGE FOR CUBS

(By Hugh S. Fullerton).

Chicago, March 22.—Chicago's Cubs present one of the biggest interrogation marks of the coming baseball season. There is just a fair ball team, slightly improved over last year, and forced by the new twenty-one man limit rule to cast away a whole raft of very promising young material and hold onto tried and known players of little more than mediocre ability.

Compared with the team that won pennants for Frank Chance, the Cubs are a joke, but compared on a basis of the present strength of the National league, they seem to have a pretty fair chance to run third or better. With a lot of luck they might win a pennant.

Remember, in doing this team, that it should have won the National league pennant last year with half way decent handling. Failure to hustle and use ordinary judgment kept them from grabbing the honors.

There are but three new men on Bresnahan's team out of the army of recruits. They are McLarry, the second baseman from Louisville, and Adams and Staudridge, unless you count Bob Fisher, who came back to them last year. The only surprise in the list is that Bresnahan chose to keep Pete Kelsely and let Jimmy Johnston go.

I think he showed rare judgment in declining to listen to the fans, who judged Kelsely by his bad work last year. Pete is a better player than Johnston, and will show it.

The catching staff is perhaps the best in the league. Archer and Bresnahan will do the bulk of the work, with Bubblers Hargrave, one of the most promising of youngsters, who is developing rapidly, to help.

Cheney, Vaughn, Humphries, Lavender, Zabel and Pierce are the vets of the pitching staff. Lavender may be traded later. Big Hippo Vaughn is showing a world of stuff, and is due to break out as the premier pitcher of the league. It is a magnificent staff, and constitutes the main strength of the team.

Safer will play first and McLarry second. Fisher is a most excellent fielder but can't hit much.

Zimmerman is Zimmerman, a bad ball player, who can hit hard, and who throws away about as many games as he wins with his bat.

Phelan and Corridan are the club's infielders and the chances are Phelan will be a regular before the season is very old.

SHOP AND RAIL ROAD NEWS

FRANK J. GREER GETS A BOUQUET

Office Associates Remind Him of His Birth Anniversary.

Frank J. Greer, chief time clerk for the train service of the Pennsylvania, found a mammoth bouquet of pink carnations and ferns on his desk this morning, when he arrived at the office. It bore a card with the greetings of the "boys," calling attention to the fact that Mr. Greer was passing another milestone on life's pathway today, and expressing the hope that he might see many more birthday anniversaries. Mr. Greer was born in Carrick, on Shandon, county Leitrim, Ireland, in 1891, and came to America when he was a small boy. He was seventeen years old, in 1878, when he took a position as brakeman in the freight service on the Pennsylvania. Some years later he met with an accident at Forest, Ohio, which incapacitated him for further train service and when he recovered from the injury he took a clerical position in the freight house. In 1893 he was promoted to chief clerk to the trainmaster and on July 1, 1899, he assumed his present position. Mr. Greer is an enthusiastic automobile and motor boat owner and operator. His cottage at Wawasee is one of the most pleasant at that pretty resort and none enjoy a sojourn there more than he. In the days when bicycle riding was at its zenith, Mr. and Mrs. Greer were among the most enthusiastic cyclists of the city. Together they made a bicycle tour of some of the European countries.

WANT A NICKEL PLATE LINE.

Findlay Residents Figure Out Route for the Spur.

Business men of Findlay are desirous of securing passenger service of the Nickel Plate for their city. Under the plan which will be presented for consideration by officials of the local road, the passengers would be operated as at present until Arcadia was reached, then detour over the L. E. & W. to Findlay, then switch to the tracks of the C. I. & D. and return to McComb, where the trains would return to the tracks of the Nickel Plate and continue as at present. Another suggestion is the construction of a special track through Findlay from Arcadia to McComb, which would make a difference of but three miles, it is said. Freight trains could be operated over the present right-of-way, according to the suggestions which have been framed by the chamber of commerce of Findlay.

BRICKLAYERS AND PLASTERERS.

International Unions of Each Side to Be Preparing to Consolidate.

The executive boards of the Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers' International Union of America and the Journeymen Stone Cutters' International association will hold a joint meeting in Indianapolis in May to discuss the question of the amalgamation of the two organizations. The international headquarters of the two unions are in Indianapolis. The invitation of the bricklayers' organization, asking that the stone cutters' union affiliate with that body, was considered by the recent convention of the stone cutters' union in Kansas City. The representatives of the stone cutters unanimously adopted a resolution concurring in the general officers the power to decide the question.

Woman Attorney in Highest Court

Hortense Ward.

Texas is now represented at the United States supreme court bar by a woman—Mrs. Hortense Ward, of Houston. Authority to practice in the highest court in the land was granted to her recently in Washington. Mrs. Ward has been practicing law in Texas for several years. She is active in state politics and two years ago she led the movement that won separate property rights for women in Texas.

fection and operation were painful, but not necessarily dangerous, and Mr. Hays will be on duty again soon. He has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania for many years and is one of the charter members of No. 78, Switchmen's Union of North America, which has honored him several times with office.

WILL CHANGE CONSTITUTION.

Ever since its organization the Electro-Technic club has held its elections in the spring, at the close of the fiscal year. It is now proposed to change the date to the fall, so that the incoming officers will start with the beginning of the series of lectures and entertainments, instead of having to deal with them at the tail end of their administration. It is argued that the officers will take hold of the active work of the club immediately after their election with greater enthusiasm than they will in the closing months, after a season of inactivity. With this end in view, President Joseph Schwartzkopf has appointed J. B. Mills, F. G. Durfee and R. O. Orr a committee to change the reading of the constitution and by-laws to make the desired change in date of election.

ATTENDED FUNERAL OF FATHER.

Master Mechanic and Mrs. George W. Smith attended the funeral of Daniel W. Mitten at Huntington yesterday. The deceased, who was the father of Mrs. Smith, died suddenly last Friday at his home, Granite City, Ill., and the remains were brought to Huntington and interred in Mt. Hope cemetery yesterday. Mr. Mitten was taken suddenly ill after some of the children had been summoned to his home on account of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Mitten, and he died a short time afterwards. The aged widow was unable to attend the funeral. The family formerly resided in Huntington.

DOLLAR RATE BEGINS APRIL 18.

District Passenger Agent F. P. Parrin and Ticket Agent C. A. Pritchard, of the Nickel Plate, were advised yesterday by circular letters that the Sunday dollar rate for 100 miles and return would become effective this year on Sunday, April 18. Out of Fort Wayne the western limit is Valparaiso and the eastern limit Green Springs, Ohio. This year the rate becomes effective two weeks earlier than it did last year. Last year they remained in effect until December 27, but the limit for 1915 was not given in the circulars. No rearrangement of recent years has been as popular with the public as the dollar rate on the Nickel Plate.

TO AGREE ON 1915 SCALE.

It is desired to have all members of the union present at the meeting Wednesday night to hear the report of the committee, which parties interested believe, will be satisfactory. The local union is taking on more activity as the season for work approaches. Five of the old and three new applicants have been taken into the membership.

TWO SUITS AGAINST CHIEF FOR DIAMOND

Chief of Police Charles Lenz is now defendant in two different suits for the recovery of one diamond ring and is patiently waiting for the rival litigations to be fought out in the courts. The ring is one taken from Ray Jackson, a criminal arrested in this city several weeks ago. Jackson said he got it from his wife, Mary Jackson, of Lago, Ind., who gave it to him to sell, which he was attempting to do when arrested. Mrs. Harvey Gass, of Huntington, says the ring was stolen from her by Mrs. Jackson, and she had the Lago woman arrested for grand larceny and then in a replevin suit in Justice Grabner's court in Fort Wayne got a judgment against Chief Lenz for possession of the ring. Mrs. Jackson was acquitted of the larceny charge last week in the Huntington circuit court, proving to the satisfaction of a jury that her story of having received the ring five years ago as a gift was true. Now, through Attorney W. A. Brannan, of Huntington, Mrs. Jackson has sued Chief Lenz in the Allen circuit court for the diamond. Chief Lenz will hold on to the ring until the courts finally settle the question of ownership.

New Orleans is to have a school of salesmanship for the benefit of clerks.

MISS FLEISCHMANN

Here's an unconventional view of a very conventional young society woman, Miss Fleischmann, one of the belles of Coronado beach and the daughter of the great magnate, Julius Fleischmann, of Cincinnati, O.

It looks like a summer scene, but the picture was taken a few days ago, for every day is summer-like at the California winter resort.

ward of Terre Haute would have been much larger in the last election if the women watchers had not been present. was deduced from the testimony of a number of negroes who told of their efforts and successes at repeating. Several of the witnesses testified to being turned away from the polls by the women.

"A little woman said I could not vote because I had been there before. I knew she was telling the truth, so I didn't dispute her word, but turned away," testified one witness. Another woman recognized him by a pink collar he was wearing.

According to testimony today, the regulation price for votes in the last election was $1 each, but in two precincts, B. of the First ward, and the "Bagdad" district, $2 was paid for a vote. Clarence Stark, a negro school-keeper, who has pleaded guilty, testified that Chief of Police Hollister, who has also pleaded guilty, promised him "the gambling privileges for the Bagdad precinct if he would get out the registration and vote."

Members of the jury, which is hearing the Terre Haute election fraud cases in United States district court here, entered today upon the third week of their confinement apparently in the best of health.

With the exception of the trips out for their meals and long walks on Sunday the twelve men are confined to quarters on the third floor of the federal building. At least three and possibly four weeks will be required to complete the case, but bailiffs in charge of the jury say there has been no complaint from the men.

SURRENDERS TO CZAR

through East Prussia, on the north and simultaneously into Silesia from Galicia. The Russians succeeded in penetrating Galicia, but the success of the Austrians in holding Przemyśl and Cracow blocked attempts to invade Germany across the Silesian border. The siege of Przemyśl has been one of the most picturesque phases of the war in the east. The Austrian garrison defended the city with determination and valor during the earlier months inflicting considerable losses on the Russians by frequent sorties. The only means of communication with the outside world was by wireless telegraphy and aeroplane. Although there have been several reports recently that the surrender of Przemyśl was imminent, news from the city itself described conditions there as nearly normal, except for the regulations imposed by the military authorities. All supplies of food was taken over by the army officials, who issued rations to the soldiers and civilians alike. The last direct word from Przemyśl before the announcement of its surrender was that the defenders had little to do.

Przemyśl was well stocked with ammunition and provisions when the siege began, although there was sharp discrepancy between the Russian and Austrian estimate of the length of time it would be able to hold out. There have been indications recently that hunger for it was effective ally the Russians, for it was reported that aeroplanes were making daily flights to Przemyśl with cargoes of provisions.

Last week the Russians brought down an Austrian aeroplane said to have been laden with tinners for the Przemyśl garrison. The fall of Przemyśl was forecasted in a Petrograd dispatch last Wednesday, which said that the capitulation of the fortress was a matter of only a few days. Austrian soldiers captured by the Russians during unsuccessful sorties said the garrison was existing on famine rations and that the hospitals were crowded. The outer defenses of the city were said to have been put out of commission. Przemyśl has been described as the key to the Austrian empire. The opinion has been expressed by Russian commentators that occupation would facilitate operations against the interior of Austria, which hitherto had been attended by insignificant results. Beyond Przemyśl lies the great and prosperous wheat country of Austria. The city lies sixty miles west of Lemberg, which the Russians captured several months ago. It is a thriving city of about 50,000 inhabitants, the large majority of whom are Poles. It is situated on San river and is a seat of a Roman Catholic bishop and a Greek Catholic unit bishop.

The city was strongly defended with outer and inner works well equipped with modern artillery.

LOSE; THEN WIN AGAIN.

French Report Recapture of Trenches North of Arras.

Paris, March 22.—The official statement given out today by the French war department says:

"To the north of Arras, at Notre Dame de Lorette, a German counter-attack on Saturday night deprived us of some sections of trenches. We recaptured them yesterday."

"At La Basselle, northeast of Albert, mine warfare continues. After having blown up one of the enemy's galleries we occupied the greatest part of the former."

"During Sunday Rheims received about fifty shells."

"In the Argonne we inflicted two serious reverses on the enemy. Near Bagatelle, we blew up three mines and two companies of our troops stormed a German trench in which they maintained their positions despite strong counter-attacks."

"Five hundred yards from there the enemy, after exploding two mines and bombarding our trenches, rushed to attack on a front of about 250 yards. After some very hot hand to hand fighting our opponents were hurled back in spite of their reinforcements, with heavy losses."

departure and in compliance with instructions in your telegram March 19, warning shots were fired with machine guns and one shot across her bows with

In presence of collector of customs, March 19, 1 personally informed German consul and commander of Odenwald that force would be used if necessary to prevent vessel leaving without clearance."

Refused to Allow Inspection. It was learned here, however, that the Odenwald was warned that she could not leave San Juan until the port officers had an opportunity for thorough inspection. Permission for that was refused. Officials here feel convinced that the Odenwald while not loaded with supplies of coal and food that are usually carried by merchantmen, may have intended to fit out on the high seas with guns and ammunition as an auxiliary cruiser like the Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

Local officials in Porto Rico suspected that the Odenwald was planning to take that course and had the United States consented to her departure under the circumstances it was held by the state department that it thereby might have created another Alabama case.

Assistant Secretary Peters, of the treasury department, who is looking after the Odenwald case, was in consultation with state department officials today.

Stockholder Says Baseball
Concer nis Hopelessly Insolvent!

Indianapolis, March 22.—Alleging that the Indianapolis Federal league baseball club is insolvent, Philip W. Bartholomew, former judge of the superior court, and a stockholder, brought suit today to place the club in the hands of a receiver.

He alleges that in addition to an indebtedness of $75,000, the club is indebted to the stockholders for the non-payment of a percent cash dividends on $50,000 worth of stock.

Judge Bartholomew alleges that the club is in an embarrassed financial condition and is losing money every day. He further alleges in his suit that he has been informed that the corporation owning the club is about to dissipate its property and assets by transferring the club to unknown parties without in any way providing for or securing the payment to its stockholders or debtors some already due them.

The case will be heard tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock before Judge Vincent Clifford, of the superior court.

WILL INITIATE BIG CLASS.

Members of Cadet Grotton Plan for Big Time on March 31.

Two hundred or more candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of Cadet Grotton, Wednesday evening, March 31, at the Majestic theater, at which time hundreds of visitors will be here from nearby cities. Large delegations are expected from Chicago, Detroit, Toledo and Columbus.

Special scenery for the event is now being painted and much new paraphernalia has been ordered.

HAS NOT CHANGED PLANS.

Washington, March 22.—Recent events in Mexico have not changed President Wilson's determination not to recognize any government there which is not the result of orderly elections. Various reports of efforts to induce the United States to recognize General Villa were met at the white house today with the statement that the president's policy was unchanged and that he had no intention of departing from it.

PRESIDENT ANSWERS
LETTER FROM POSSY

Wilson and Two Little Belgians in Brussels in Correspondence.

Washington, March 22.—An exchange of letters written between President Wilson and two little Belgians in Brussels, in which the children thanked the president for the food sent by Americans and the president expressed his appreciation of their gratitude was made public today at the white house. The children, twins, 9 years old, wrote as follows:

"Dear Mr. Wilson: Thank you very much for the good bread. The poor people in our villages were starving for they had nothing to eat but now that you have sent over to our dear little country provisions of wheat, both rich and poor can live, thanks to the Americans."

"Best love and wishes from little 'POSSY' DEPOELBERCH."

Pussy's brother added the following note: "I join in with my sister in thanking you too, for it is jolly good bread, enough to satisfy any school-boy's hunger."

In reply the president sent the following letter in his own hand writing: "My dear little friends: Your letter touched me very deeply and I thank you for it with all my heart. It makes me very happy to think that what generous Americans have done to relieve the hunger and distress in your country has brought you the help you needed and given you a little happiness in the midst of these terrible days of war. I hope that you will grow up to be strong to do the work that will have to be done in the days of peace that are coming. It would be a greater pleasure to me if some day I might see you both when those happier times have come."

"Your sincere friend,
"WOODROW WILSON."

IN SHORT QUARTER HER DREAM ENDED

Linda Bennett and Spouse
Separated Soon After Marriage.

In a year's short quarter love's dream fled for Linda Bennett and now almost two and one-half years after the separation from George Bennett she is suing him for divorce. She alleges that for two years and more he has failed to give her any support. They were married in July, 1912 and three months later they had drifted apart. There are no children.

Almost 35 Years Together. After a married life that began in December, 1880, Alice Matthews has begun action in the superior court for divorce from Jackson Matthews, from whom she separated the 2nd of this month. She says that she failed to support her adequately. The court has issued an order restraining the defendant from molesting her at home, 806 East Wayne street, as elsewhere, and to prevent Albert Weber, his employer, from paying him his wages.

Boasted of His Conquests. According to a complaint for divorce just filed in the superior court by Mae E. Bools, her husband, Harvie A. Bools, went too far with his Don Juan stuff when he began to boast of his conquests among the ladies and invited his wife with the names of the women he met and of his relations with them. These statements, she says in her complaint, were as a matter of fact true and have destroyed her love for him and given her great pain and anguish of mind. She says that early in the present month she pleaded with him to change his ways of life, but that he refused and said he would maintain relations with whomever he chose. They were married June 27, 1908, and separated March 13, 1915.

Notes of the Courts. Charles D. Nolan, receiver for the Wayne Amusement company, reports in finality to the superior court that he has received $250 by the sale of the company's property and has paid it 35 cents—$225 on a chattel mortgage and $25 for receiver's expenses and attorney's fees—and asks for his discharge as receiver.

A petition having been filed in the circuit court to have the estate of the late Edward Gilmanin appraised for inheritance taxes, a report is filed showing that the estate consisted of personal property of the value of $18,171.61, a real estate of the value of $44,646, a total value of $62,817.61, upon which there is an offset of $3,381.82 in debts, leaving a net value of $59,435.79.

There has been filed in the circuit court an amendment to the third paragraph of the complaint in the suit of Arthur C. Dinklage vs. the Grand Rapids & Indiana railroad for $10,000 damages.

After a jury had come together in the superior court Monday to hear the suit of Edward and Hattie Johnson against Joseph Loos the plaintiff's suit was dismissed. The action involved an alleged encroachment of a building owned by the defendant on property owned by the plaintiffs.

George E. Salisbury has been granted a divorce from Mary C. Salisbury by the superior court.

Judgment for $300 was given the plaintiff in the suit of John H. Elmer, et al., vs. Edward M. Shell, in the superior court.

Albert G. Walter was given judgment for $116.39 against George and Jennie Weeks in the superior court.

The circuit court has granted changes of venue from this county in the following cases: Laura E. Robinson vs. the Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction Company; DeKalb county; Charles Anderson vs. Malissa Van Horn; Adams county; Charles H. Buck vs. Mike Cosma; to DeKalb county.

FOUNDER ST. JOSEPH HOSPITAL PASSES AWAY

Venerable Sister Maria Henrica, the founder of the St. Joseph hospital of Fort Wayne, died at the hospital Monday morning at the advanced age of 82 years. Sister Henrica was known all over the United States as a founder of hospitals, and her death will be a shock to her many acquaintances and friends.

She came to this country from Germany in 1888 shortly after she had married her perpetual vow with eight other Sisters, including her only sister, Maria Bella, who still survives her. She came directly to Hesse Cassel and one year later, seeing that there was a field for a hospital in this city, she began work of organization. She remained here four years and saw the wonderful progress the institution made in that short length of time. From that time on until four years ago she traveled over the entire country and founded hospitals.

She retired from active work four years ago, but since that time she has constantly been at the hospital where she gave instructions and advice to the other Sisters. She was held in high esteem by the other Sisters of the institution and they feel that her death will be a great loss.

The deceased was born in Germany in 1833 and her name was Josephine Siewick. The only surviving relative is Sister Bella, who is eight years younger and who is also serving at the St. Joseph hospital. The one wish of Sister Henrica, that she would die at the first hospital which she founded, was granted her.

Funeral services Wednesday morning at 7:45 o'clock at the chapel of the St. Joseph hospital. Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

50,000 ARE LED TO CHRIST BY SUNDAY

Baseball Evangelist Has Had Amazing Success in Philadelphia.

BILLY SUNDAYISMS.

You've gotta hand it to the city rube for swiftness in coming to Christ.

I want to give every soul in this country a chance to hit the sawdust trail and take the path to glory.

I don't know anything more about the "higher criticism" than a jack-rabbit does about ping pong, but I know that a soul really converted is a wonderful thing.

When folks put money into religion you may know they are convinced of the goodness of God.

I now long to tell the gospel to the folks in all the great cities of America.

(By Harry Payne Burton.)

Philadelphia, Pa., March 22.—"Yep, I've gotta hand it to the big city folks. They certainly get hep to God and His goodness faster than any other folks I ever met."

In such typical Billy Sundayes did the most famous evangelist in the world sum up for me his own impressions of the biggest, the most phenomenal soul-saving campaign he has ever engaged in—that he is just drawing to a close in Philadelphia after eleven strenuous weeks.

I had caught Sunday in his bedroom while he was changing his clothes between the afternoon session at the great tabernacle and the evening one which he was to open there within another hour.

He was just slipping a dressing gown over his B. V. D's. The skin on his arms and legs was sleek as an athlete's and the muscles rippled beneath as efficiently as when he was a star on the diamond. He threw himself on the heavy mahogany empire bed, passed his hands over his face which was indeed a little weary. Then he grinned.

"This revival in Philadelphia has been the most wonderful experience of my life," he said, his eyes shining.

"Why, this is my eleventh week here and we have conducted in that time fifteen full major meetings every week and never once has there been a lull. Never once has a single meeting sagged in attendance, in enthusiasm, in converts, in collections."

"The full value of this can be realized only when you know that the tabernacle here holds 17,000 people and that means a daily attendance of 34,000 and 50,000 on Sundays!"

"The number of souls which have hit the sawdust trail here is the thing that thrills me though. Think of it, man, 500 of them a day on the average and 1,500 on Sunday—50,000 souls brought to Christ in Philadelphia in eleven weeks!"

"Fifty thousand people who have come to Billy Sunday's Christ means something to a city."

"It means tremendous force for good. It means active Christianity that will do any city more good than all the theoretical Christianity—the higher criticism kind—that can be shot out of a 42-centimeter cannon."

"I don't know any more about the higher criticism than a jack rabbit does about ping pong, but I do know that a soul really converted is a wonderful thing."

"When folks put money into religion you may know they are convinced of the goodness of God. Here we have raised $60,000 for current expenses, $15,000 for the local charities and on the final Sunday but one, the day reserved for me, the money simply poured in. That contribution is well over $40,000 now and when it's all counted it will be $50,000 without a doubt."

"You could not have told me that a great city would respond to God as Philadelphia has. I thought that my work lay with the folks back home in the towns and the smaller cities. I thought grill rooms and tango parlors had hardened most city-bred people far beyond the softening influence of Christ. But I find I am wrong. They respond more quickly than any."

"I think they have seen so much terrible, heart-breaking distress in the great bee hives of men that they long for the good, for Christ, even more than other people. At least they appear to."

"You've gotta hand it to the city rube for swiftness in coming to Christ!"

"I will admit that I was afraid to take a great big city—afraid I couldn't get away with it. But I see now that I wasn't ready for it before. I didn't have the experience."

"But I see how God has worked. He brought me to the city when I was ready to come to the city. The city and I have found each other. I long to tell the gospel now to the folks in all the great cities of America. If it is God's will I want to pour it once into every ear in all this country—to give every breathing soul in our great beautiful country a chance to hit the sawdust trail and take the path to glory, to Billy Sunday's Christ!"

Sunday's Philadelphia campaign is no doubt the climax of his career and places him on a footing with the greatest evangelists of the past. The estimated number of 50,000 converts in the Quaker city, if correct, is almost twice the number recorded in Pittsburgh which totalled 26,000. Some of the other cities where Sunday preached in the past with the number of converts are as follows:

Columbus, O., 18,000; McKeesport, Pa., 10,000; South Bend, Ind., 6,000; Wilkesbarre, Pa., 16,000; Johnstown, Pa., 11,000; Steubenville, O., 8,000; and Toledo, O., 8,000.

BLUFFTON REVIVAL ENDS.

Evangelist Stephens Ends Campaign With 500 Conversions.

Bluffton, Ind., March 22.—With a record of 500 conversions the evangelistic campaign of Rev. George T. Stephens and his party was concluded last night in the big tabernacle here. The crowds at all of yesterday's tabernacle services were the largest of the meetings. Last night hundreds of people could not gain admission. The free will offerings for the evangelist yesterday morning amounted to $1,714 and other offerings since bring the total to something above $2,000. Saturday afternoon the Sunday schools of Bluffton had a big parade as a feature of the meetings and there were 832 pupils of the Sunday schools in the procession. Rev. Stephens and his corps of assistants will rest this week and next Sunday night will inaugurate a month's series of meetings in Montpelier, where a big tabernacle has already been erected and the churches of the city have completed extensive organization for the campaign.

REFORMED MAN FALLS OFF.

Huntington, Ind., March 22.—Joe Murphy, who was converted last winter, while serving a term in the Huntington jail and who held almost nightly prayer meetings for the transients who were given free lodgings at police headquarters, has fallen from the "water wagon" and from grace. After a long period of sobriety and strict pursuit of the straight and narrow path of righteousness, something toppled the little Irishman from his seat and he got drunk. Hearing the police were looking for him he purchased a railway ticket and left the city. He is an ex-convict and asserts that his father was a singing evangelist in New York. An accident that afflicted him with a broken ankle a few weeks ago probably had something to do with his relapse to former ways.

AGES OF FOUR AGGREGATE 328.

Huntington, Ind., March 22.—Celebration of the ninetieth birthday anniversary of Mrs. John Gelzeichter, of this city, brought together a brother and two sisters whose ages combined with her own aggregate 328 years. Her brother, Matthias Nuck, of Huntington, is 85; Mrs. Nicholas Dagus, four miles west of Huntington, is 80, and Mrs. John Rousch, of this city, is 73. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nuck, came from Bavaria, Germany, to Clear Spring township, this county, in frontier days. Mrs. Rousch was born there in 1841. Mrs. Gelzeichter was at one time employed in the household of Chief Lafontaine, head of the Miami Indians, and she can still narrate interesting stories of the early days in Huntington county.

AGED MAN IN THE TOILS.

Warsaw, Ind., March 22.—Charges of encouraging delinquency were filed in the circuit court by Prosecutor Newton Hoover, an old soldier and a resident of East Warsaw. According to the charge Hoover on March 1 of this year took to his home Lydia Hoffman, a young girl, an orphan and whose home is in Pierceton, and kept her there until March 16, when officers came to the home and took her away. According to the statement of this girl, the aged man during the time contributed to her delinquency. While staying at the Hoover home the girl had been working at the overall factory.

HAD BIG REVIVAL PARADE.

Decatur, Ind., March 22.—The Sunday school rally and parade Saturday afternoon in connection with the Honeywell meetings was a great success. After marching over several of the streets of the city the parade ended at the tabernacle, where a big meeting was held. The parade was led by the Honeywell party, consisting of Rev. Honeywell, Rev. and Mrs. McCombe and Prof. and Mrs. Glase, and next to them the City band. Nine schools, six in Decatur and three from out of the city, were in the line of march, which was several blocks in length. It took exactly twelve minutes for the parade to pass a single given point.

WILL HAVE A MAUSOLEUM.

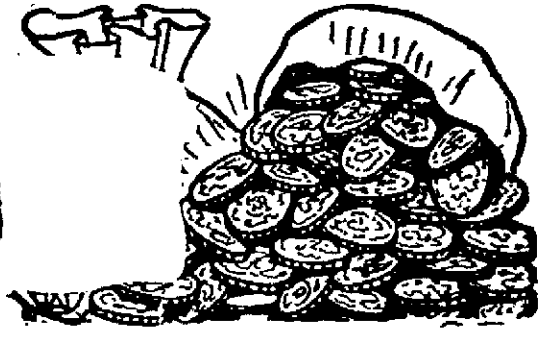

Columbia City, Ind., March 22.—The Chubbuck Granite company has sold a family mausoleum to A. L. Obendchain, of South Whitley, and when it is erected it will be the only one of the kind in the county. It will be built in the South Whitley cemetery. The mausoleum will have six cribs in it and it will be finished on the outside with Italian marble. Its dimensions will be twelve feet long, eleven and a half feet wide and thirteen feet high, and it will be a handsome piece of work of its kind. Mr. Obendchain is the father of Ralph Obendchain, who had his neck broken a year or more ago at the Purdue tank scrap.

This will prove a welcome bit of information for all those who are overworked, gloomy, despondent, nervous and have trembling limbs, heart palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities, insomnia, fear without cause, timidity in venturing and general inability to act naturally and rationally as others do because the treatment consisting of grain tablets can be obtained and taken without the knowledge of any one. If the reader has any of the symptoms, and decides to try it just go to any large well stocked drug store and ask for three-grain Cadomene Tablets, and then take according to the directions which accompany each sealed tube. The tonic-investigative power is soon felt and the joy of a healthy body experienced. These tablets, originally dispensed by prominent physicians and pharmacists, now are packed with full directions for self administration, so that it is wholly unnecessary to pay a physician for prescribing them.

DEATH COMES ON BIRTHDAY.

Bluffton, Ind., March 22.—Mrs. Mary Wilson, widow of the late Abram T. Wilson, of this county, and affectionately known to an extensive circle of acquaintances as "Aunt Mary," died at her home here Saturday. Her death fell upon the seventy-sixth anniversary of her birth and many of her friends had remembered that it was her natal day and sent her cards bearing their good wishes. Death was due to blood poisoning and pneumonia. She was born in Ohio in 1839 and at the age of twelve years came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, to Wells county. Her husband died in 1883.

She was the state last week but not until after a bitter showed unusual signs of viciousness and finally developed hydrophobia was and efforts are being made to locate a cat that is known to have been bitten by the dog just a few days ago, through fear that it may also cause trouble.

WOLCOTTVILLE MAN DIES.

He spent his whole life in this town or immediate vicinity. He is survived by a widow, two sons, Roy and James, of Wolcottville, and two daughters, Mrs. Beulah Long, of Goshen, and Mrs. George Gardner, of Sturgis, Mich.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. It not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pained called rheumatism.

As the first twinges of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.—Adv.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is an old saying that "Nature cures, the doctor takes the fee," but as everyone knows, you can help nature very much and thereby enable it to effect a cure in much less time than is usually required. This is particularly true of colds. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough mucus and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. It is pleasant to take and harmless as it contains no narcotic. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

New York, March 22.—Peace Sunday was observed in Roman Catholic churches throughout the country yesterday in compliance with directions from Pope Benedict XV., who sent a prayer, from Rome, which was read by the clergy and which invoked divine providence to give back to the world peace and tranquility.

Besides the reading of the papal prayer for peace at all masses, special services were held. These included solemn high masses and special sermons urging the people to pray individually for a restoration of peace in Europe. The blessed sacrament was exposed to view in nearly all the churches throughout the day and in the evening special vesper services took place.

Cardinal Farley was present at solemn high mass in St. Patrick's cathedral in New York city and in the cathedrals of other large cities archbishops and bishops either officiated or were present at service.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, March 22.—Decreasing stocks at Liverpool tended today to lift the wheat market here, but prices did not seem to stand much selling on the upturn. The opening, which varied from ¼¢, declined to ½¢ advance, was followed by a material advance all around and then a moderate setback.
The close was heavy at a loss of 1½¢ to 1½¢ net.
Unfavorable weather gave some strength to corn. Selling was only scattered. After opening a shade to ¼¢/40 lower, prices rose all above Saturday night's level.
Closing prices were unsettled at ¼¢/40 under Saturday.
Oats hardened on account of reports of delayed seeding. Offerings were light. Provisions went sharply down grade. Sellers seemed to be chiefly influenced by the enforcement of the embargo orders in Europe.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, March 22.—Specialties were again the central figure at the outset of this week's operations on the stock exchange. Bethlehem Steel once more overshadowed all other issues, selling up to 63½, a gain of 3½ points from last Saturday's close, and a new high record price. Motor shares came next in prominence, with gains of one to over three points. The so-called leaders or former speculative favorites were comparatively backward.
Bethlehem Steel yielded more than one-half its early gain largely as a result of selling for profits, but went higher in the second hour, touching 70½. Other specialties also moved feverishly while U. S. Steel and Reading rose and fell within more narrow limits.

She's Star Model of Fashion World

Effe Young

Clothes may not make the man, but the model makes the gown; that's why Miss Effe Young is one of the most popular and one of the highest salaried fashion show models in America—and models these days draw as fat pay envelopes as vaudeville stars.
Miss Young wore the prize-winning

"Ah, that explains how Fenwiper dresses on his salary!"
"Yes, but it utterly fails to explain how he dresses his wife on it."

She—When we were first married you used to take me everywhere.
He—I see. And now that we finally have our own home you never want to stay in it.

These social events are a deuced bore!
"Well, on the other hand, look at the people you meet!"
"That's just my complaint!"

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, March 22.—Decreasing stocks at Liverpool tended today to lift the wheat market here, but prices did not seem to stand much selling on the upturn.
The opening, which varied from ¼c, declined to ½c advance, was followed by a material advance all around and then a moderate setback.
The close was heavy at a loss of 1½c to 1½c net.
Unfavorable weather gave some strength to corn. Selling was only scattered. After opening a shade to ¼c lower, prices rose all above Saturday night's level.
Closing prices were unsettled at ¼c to ½c under Saturday.
Oats hardened on account of reports of delayed seeding. Offerings were light.
Provisions went sharply down grade.
Sellers seemed to be chiefly influenced by the enforcement of the embargo orders in Europe.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, March 22.—Specialties were again the central figure at the outset of this week's operations on the stock exchange. Bethlehem Steel once more overshadowed all other issues, selling up to 69½, a gain of 3½ points from last Saturday's close, and a new high record price. Motor shares came next in prominence, with gains of one to over three points. The so-called leaders or former speculative favorites were comparatively backward.
Bethlehem Steel yielded more than one-half its early gain largely as a result of selling for profits, but went higher in the second hour, touching 70½. Other specialties also moved feverishly while U.
S. Steel and Reading rose and fell within more narrow limits.

BUB-HIS ALWAYS TO BLAME

KEPT PARLOR ONLY FOR HIS PATRONS

John Fiers' Cellar Lair of Tiger is Raided by the Police.

In pleading guilty in the city court Monday morning to a charge of keeping a gambling house, John J. Fiers, proprietor of a barber shop at 343 East Lewis street, told the court that he had been maintaining the resort in the basement beneath his shop for two or three years and that it was solely for the accommodation and pleasure of his tonorial customers, who liked once a week to take a little twist at the tail of the tiger. There never had been a "kittie," never a "rake-off," nor in short anything that could convict him of running his nice tight little underground parlor for profit. Fiers was fined $25 and costs and six men who were found at a table playing poker for the chips and coin in front of them, when the police broke into the room about 5 o'clock Sunday evening, pleaded guilty and were fined $10 and costs each. No jail sentences were added, Judge Kerr expressing the belief that Fiers had told the truth about the character of the place. Fiers heartily promised that there would be no more gambling in, above or below his barber shop. Of the six men who were guests of the place at the time of the raid all are working men and none of them is known as a professional gambler, facts which inclined the court to mercy in dealing with them. Besides Fiers the men arrested were J. A. Wilkerson, Charles McQuinn, William Brown, Jacob Wiedemann, William Wimmer and Francis Gordon. The raiding squad consisted of Patrolmen Brandt, Paul and Petgen, Court Bailiff George Eisenhut and Edward O'Connor, private secretary to Chief Lenz. While Brandt and O'Connor guarded the front entrance, Eisenhut, Paul and Petgen got into the cellar through a delicatessen store and, breaking down a door and entered the snug little room where Fiers let his friends play poker. All were gathered in at the time save Wiedemann, who got away. After the patrol wagon made a futile trip for him Monday morning he voluntarily appeared at the headquarters. All of the others had posted bond for their appearance and were released Sunday evening.

Wife Charges Larceny.
William Schoppman, 423 Buchanan street, was in court on a charge of petit larceny preferred by his wife, 425 Buchanan street. Mrs. Schoppman stated that while she was out nursing sick folks her husband stole $12 and prolonged a spree upon which he had been at work for some time. She said he was a fine man when sober, but a bad lot when "spreeing." Schoppman admitted it all along with his plea of guilty and Judge Kerr continued the case until the 30th inst. to give the man a chance to brace up.

Bessie Farnan in Again.
Bessie Farnan, who was in court a few days ago on a drunk charge and was released, was picked up again Saturday in company with William Rollins, of 425 Masterson avenue. Both were drunk. The Farnan woman was ill and not able to be tried and both cases were continued until Wednesday.

Other City Court Cases.
John Walker, an aged man, held two or three days last week on a drunk charge and released Saturday to get out of town, was picked up helplessly drunk in the east yards Saturday evening. Judge Kerr sent him over for eleven days.

These drunks were disposed of: Walter Virgil, who was following and accosting women down town, $5 and costs; Ed Sullivan, $1 and costs; John Dunn, Joe Lee, Philip Bruns, Mike Hart, Jimmy Wier and William Eysart, continued indefinitely.

John Corral, charged with public indecency, was allowed to go. He was drunk when arrested. The case against Lee Christwell, for assault and battery, and the case against Joseph Duffy, for loitering, were continued until April 10 and their bonds were maintained at $1,000 each. Christwell is charged with assaulting a man named Sullivan during a quarrel in the Wabash railway yards over a bottle of alcohol and of having knocked him under the wheels of an engine by which one of Sullivan's legs was cut off. Sullivan has had to undergo a reamputation of the injured leg. Duffy is held as a witness.

A drunken vag was arrested Monday morning by Officer Majors and booked for loitering. He was trying to sell brass rings with glass sets for $3 to $5 each. He was continued a week and his bond was fixed at $300.

PRAISES FORT WAYNE POLICE.

H. H. Grigg, of Elkhartville, superintendent for Indiana of the World's Purity federation, an organization that specially wages war on the social evil, has high praise for the Fort Wayne police department and general conditions in Fort Wayne, after making an investigation here. "The Fort Wayne police department has gone far toward eliminating vice from this city and has done about all that could be done under the laws with which they had to work," said Mr. Grigg. "The recent legislature has given further laws that will help to reach vice and wipe it out." He states that there are many places in Fort Wayne where people may meet for immoral purposes, but no houses of ill-fame of the common type. After a talk with Chief of Police Charles Lenz, Sunday, Mr. Grigg stated that after a visit to his home, in Kendallville, he would return here, where he would then be assisted by two agents of the Purity Federation and evidence would be obtained as to immoral places. He said an effort would be made to prosecute the owners of property used for unlawful purposes. Mr. Grigg said before leaving the city that he has been assured by Chief Lenz of hearty police co-operation.

SALOON ENTERED; NOTHING GONE.

Two panes of glass were removed from a rear window of the James

O'Ryan saloon, 1406 Calhoun street, and the place was entered, but so far as the police and the proprietor could discover nothing was taken.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Clyde Barnhill Convicted of Slaying at Boonville.

Boonville, Ind., March 22.—Clyde Barnhill was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in the circuit court for killing William (Bud) O'Loughlin in the public square here on the night of January 15, last. The verdict, which was returned at 5 o'clock last evening, after the jury had deliberated since midnight, carries with it a sentence of from 2 to 21 years in state prison. Barnhill killed O'Loughlin as the result of domestic trouble.

FIND NO FIRE; ONLY SMOKE.

A telephone call was sent into headquarters at 10 o'clock Sunday morning from the residence of F. L. Stapleton, 215 East Lewis street. When the firemen arrived they found no fire, only in the furnace. Smoke had poured into the living room from the furnace and thinking that the house was on fire, the family sent in an alarm.

SEALING OUTLOOK NOT GOOD.

Catch is Very Small and Ice Flocks Hamper Operations.

St. Johns, N. F., March 22.—Wireless reports received today from the sealing fleets indicate that the outlook for the season is unfavorable. The eight steamers of the eastern fleet after working their way through the ice for some 250 miles up the eastern coast of Newfoundland are now jammed in the heavy flocks off Cape St. John, about 125 miles south of the entrance to the strait of Belle Isle. Five hundred seals taken by the steamer Florida last Saturday comprise the total catch to date. In the average season the eastern fleet captures about 30,000 seals by this date. The vessels of the western fleet so far have made no catch.

DIES VERY SUDDENLY.

Only Daughter of Crawford Fairbanks Expires at Terre Haute.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 22.—Mrs. Bruce F. Failey, 39 years old, only child of Crawford Fairbanks, Terre Haute's wealthiest resident, died suddenly yesterday morning at a local hospital following an operation to relieve appendicitis. Mr. Fairbanks was in New York city when advised of his daughter's death. Mrs. Failey had been ill but a short time and her condition was not considered alarming until yesterday morning.

Millie Esther Kline, 6 years old, who came to Fort Wayne Saturday with her parents and was taken suddenly ill at the traction station in the evening, is very much improved. She was taken to the St. Joseph hospital in the police ambulance.
